1. A FEW MORE SEATS REMAIN FOR THE ISSUE FORUM ON SATURDAY, FEB. 21

PACE-C 400 ISSUE FORUM (1 cr., graded) Meets on Saturday, Feb. 21, 2015, 11:30 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

This is a graded credit that counts as INSIDE THE COLLEGE and upper level for your degree!

2. VOICE OF THE PEOPLE: POLICY-MAKING SIMULATION EVENT

Tuesday, January 27, 6:00-7:30 p.m.; Ballantine 011 -- RSVP to pace@indiana.edu to reserve a place.

BYO laptop -- You are invited to enjoy an online simulation, in-person discussion, and PIZZA. Practice being the elected officials, simulating the process our policymakers go through in making their decisions: getting briefed, hearing arguments, and coming to decisions. This is a great way to put theories of political and civic engagement into practice! The Voice of the People policymaking simulations are offered on several topics: social security reform, negotiations with Iran, and the defense budget. Try one with us as we explore the different sides of a complex issue - with pizza! RSVP to pace@indiana.edu so we have enough pizza for everyone. Facilitated by Prof. Lisa-Marie Napoli.

3. HOOSIER LEADERSHAPE INSTITUTE: SPRING BREAK 2015

The Hoosier Leadership Program is currently accepting applications and nominations for LeaderShape 2015, which is designed for emerging to advanced student leaders. This six day institute challenges participants to lead with integrity while working toward a vision grounded in their deepest values. At LeaderShape, students won’t learn how to run better meetings, they'll learn how to change the campus and the world- whatever that may mean to them. Student Life and Learning is looking for 75 students with diverse backgrounds, areas of study, and interests, to participate over Spring Break (March 15-20). If you have any questions, please contact melkish@indiana.edu. Apply by Feb. 20 at http://studentaffairs.indiana.edu/student-life-learning/leadership/hoosier-leadership-program/leadershape.shtml

PACE certificate students: let us know if you are applying and you can be considered for sponsorship through PACE!

CONFlict RESOLUTION TRAINING: COMMUNITY MEDIATION & RESTORATIVE JUSTICE

The Community Justice and Mediation Center (CJAM) offers a 48-hour training program for those interested in learning about conflict resolution, mediation, and restorative justice. Participants will enhance their interpersonal skills in communication and listening, problem solving, and negotiation, and they will increase their understanding of restorative justice philosophy and methods, the sources of conflict, and the processes leading to constructive conflict resolution. The training provides the background and skills necessary to work as a community mediator and restorative justice practitioner and qualifies participants to volunteer in CJAM’s programs. The Winter/Spring 2015 training will take place from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. February 7 & 8, 21 & 22, and March 7 & 8 at the I.U. Maurer School of Law. (Please note: the PACE Issue Forum is on Feb. 21.) Tuition is $300, early bird registration is $250 if received and paid by January 23. Scholarships are available. Download the application at www.cjamcenter.org and send to training@cjamcenter.org. Pay your registration by credit card on www.cjamcenter.org or by check made out to CJAM and mailed to 205 South Walnut St., Ste. 16, Bloomington, IN 47404. Phone 812-336-8677 or e-mail training@cjamcenter.org for information.

“A COMMUNITY CONVERSATION” WITH BLOOMINGTON LAW ENFORCEMENT

Thursday, Jan. 22, 6 p.m.; Council Chambers of City Hall, 401 N. Morton St.

The City of Bloomington Community and Family Resources Department and the City of Bloomington Police Department (BPD) will present “A Community Conversation” with law enforcement representatives serving Bloomington. Representatives from BPD, Monroe County Sheriff’s Office, Indiana University Police Department and Indiana State Police will be present to hear the concerns of residents and answer questions. Recent events in Missouri and New York, as well as other cities around the country, have brought to the forefront the need to keep lines of communication open between community members and law enforcement officials. The purpose of this event is to move forward through open and honest dialogue and to provide an opportunity to gain better understanding - both by law enforcement and the larger community. This forum is free and open to the public.

GLOBAL ENGAGEMENT SUMMIT

GES is a five-day capacity-building summit for students committed to social change in their communities and around the world. Accepted delegates come together to develop the skills to better plan, execute, and participate in change-based projects. GES focuses not only on the “what” and “how,” but also challenges delegates to think critically about the goals, impact, and broader implications of their project. It brings some of the most influential leaders in the realm of social change to lead workshops and talks and provide one-on-one mentorship that empowers delegates to implement their own ideas. The 2015 summit will take place April 15 - 19. theges.org
