1. SPRING 2014 “COURSES THAT COUNT” TOWARD THE PACE CERTIFICATE
   Listings of PACE courses and electives that count toward the PACE certificate during the Spring 2014 term are available at http://pace.indiana.edu/forms/Spr14%20courses%20that%20count.pdf.

2. ENROLL FOR THE POPULAR PACE-C 400 ISSUE FORUM – 1 CREDIT FOR 1 DAY
   The course is offered in the spring semester and you can register during continuing student enrollment, which begins in late October. You can select the course for your Academic Plan at any time and soon you will be able to put it in your Shopping Cart. The one-credit course will be offered this year on Saturday afternoon, February 22, with assignments before and after.

3. READY TO APPLY FOR THE POLITICAL AND CIVIC ENGAGEMENT CERTIFICATE?
   It’s a straightforward, easy procedure and should take about 10 minutes if you are enrolled in or have taken the beginning credits. Follow the steps here to add the certificate to your degree:
   http://pace.indiana.edu/program/apply.shtml
   You can schedule an appointment with the Associate Director, Joelle Bergonzi, to consult about your interests and priorities and how you can fit PACE into your curriculum. Call 812.856.1747 or stop by Ballantine 132.

4. PACE-C 295 / PACE-C 450 CLASS PERMISSION NEEDED?
   If you are planning to take either of the courses below in the spring semester, please reply to request online authorization to enroll.

   PACE-C 295 Citizenship and Careers (2 cr., S/F)
   If you are pursuing the certificate in Political and Civic Engagement, you may enroll in this course after taking a beginning PACE course or concurrently with PACE-C 250. It is for pre-internship students, bringing the theories of PACE to the practice of citizenship and career choices. This course is a prerequisite for the PACE-C 410 Internship (1-6 cr.) and should be taken early in your curriculum. Meets on Wednesdays, 4-6 p.m. Please note: C295 is part of the NEW PACE certificate requirements. If you have already done a 3-credit PACE internship, you do not need to take C295. Contact us with any questions: 812.856.7882, Ballantine 132.

   PACE-C 450 Capstone Seminar (3 cr.)
   After completing all the other requirements for the certificate in Political and Civic Engagement, this course is for students who are graduating in spring, summer, or fall terms, 2014. Meets Wednesdays, 4-6 p.m. This course is only offered in spring semesters.
PACE 2ND 8-WEEK COURSE STILL OPEN: MOVING BEYOND GRIDLOCK

If you find that you would like to drop a class for the fall or need another three credits – consider joining this active learning class for three credits, which begins on Tuesday, Oct. 22:

Also: If you have previously taken PACE-C 210 Public Leadership, but not C211 or C250, you could take this C300 to complete your introductory course requirement. Please let us know if you have any questions. 812.856.7882

PACE-C 300, class #34131, Moving Beyond Gridlock: Making Democracy Work
TuTh 6:00 – 8:00 PM, Ballantine 016 [starting Oct. 22] L Napoli

Do you wonder about political gridlock? Do you have concerns about how the U.S. government functions? This course explores the concepts of debate, dialogue, conflict and deliberation and the impact on the U.S. democratic system. Through interactive exercises, case studies and class discussions, students will gain insight about the essential role of deliberative democracy. In this 8-week course, students will choose contemporary issues to analyze by exploring the issue, identifying areas of conflict and finding alternatives to polarized debate. Throughout the course, students will examine the role of citizen participation and its potential for strengthening democracy at local, state and federal levels.

6 W. KAMAU BELL: FREE PERFORMANCE

Saturday, Oct 19, 6:00 p.m.; Whittenberger Auditorium, IMU; FREE performance
W. Kamau Bell is a comedian, activist and social justice commentator extraordinaire. He is also the host of the late-night TV show, Totally Biased, which is executive produced by Chris Rock on FX. http://www.wkamaubell.com/

7 2013 LAW DAY

Monday, October 21 is Law Day at IUB. With 116 schools (out of 203 nationwide) and I-CLEO coming, it will be the largest Law Fair in the country! It is a rare opportunity that most college students simply do not have. Attending can give you a head-start and an edge on the competition. Questions? Contact HPPLC at hpplc@indiana.edu or call 812.855.1873. For a list of schools that have registered so far, click here.

Both events below are great for all IU students, including freshmen and sophomores. But if you are a current applicant or a junior, you should consider attendance at both events mandatory! Casual attire is fine.

Panel Discussion, Q & A, 9:00 - 10:45 a.m. (quiet latecomers welcome) in Whittenberger Auditorium - IMU
Three Law School Deans will reveal the inner secrets of the admissions process: “WHAT REALLY WORKS IN A LAW SCHOOL APPLICATION!” These experts will provide invaluable insider information that you can’t find anywhere else. The panel is extremely informative, and always entertaining—so come early and come with questions!

Law Fair, 11:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. in the Tree Suites Rooms of the IMU
Representatives from 121 law schools will be here to recruit YOU! Ask questions about their programs, admission requirements, and your specific strengths (and weaknesses). Pick up material, forms, information (and souvenirs). Most reps are Deans of Admission, and making a good impression can be helpful in the admissions process! Don’t know what to ask? Consider these Questions to Ask Law Schools. More further info, contact the Health Professions and Prelaw Center at hpplc@indiana.edu, or at 812-855-1873.

11 CAREERS IN COMMUNITY ORGANIZING FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE
The Direct Action & Research Training (DART) Center will be hosting a webinar on Tuesday, October 22 at 8pm ET to discuss careers in the field of community organizing with individuals interested in empowering communities and working for social change. RSVP by contacting Hannah Wittmer at hannah@thedartcenter.org or calling 785-438-9808 with your name, phone number, and graduation date (actual or expected). You will then receive instructions for accessing the webinar. DART is now accepting applications for the 2014 DART Organizers Institute, the paid training and career placement program for individuals interested in launching a career in community organizing. The DART Center has built coalitions throughout the country that have won important victories on a broad set of justice issues including: education reform in low-performing public schools; job training; drugs and violence; criminal recidivism; living wage; neighborhood revitalization; predatory lending; affordable housing, etc. The DART Organizers Institute combines a classroom orientation with infield training at a local grassroots organization. Organizers are provided with a cost of living stipend and travel. Graduates of the Organizers Institute are placed into permanent full-time, salaried positions earning $34,000/year + benefits. The DART Organizers Institute will begin June 16, 2014. Training locations and permanent placements sites include cities in Ohio, Kentucky, Kansas, Indiana, South Carolina, Virginia and Florida. To find out more about DART or to apply, we encourage you to visit www.thedartcenter.org or contact Hannah Wittmer at hannah@thedartcenter.org or (785) 438-9808.
