Special Invitation:

Reclaiming Our Democracy

Discussion Lunch with “Ordinary Citizen” and RESULTS Founder Sam Daley-Harris

Tues., Oct. 8, 1-2:30 p.m., Harlos House (1331 E. Tenth St.)

Sign-up Required -- see description and how to reserve a seat at:

With public distrust and disapproval of government growing in the United States and the reality of a government shut down upon us, join Sam Daley-Harris, the founder and president of RESULTS, an international citizens' lobby, for a discussion about democracy, the capacity of citizens to bring about change, and ways to tackle hunger, poverty, and other problems that seem insoluble. You can schedule an appointment with the Associate Director, Joeline Bergonzi, to consult about your interests and priorities and how you can fit PACE into your curriculum. 812.856.1747 or stop by Ballantine 132.

2 PACE 2ND 8-WEEK COURSE STILL OPEN:

If you find that you would like to drop a class for the fall or need another three credits – consider joining this active learning class for three credits, which begins on Tuesday, Oct. 22:

PACE-C 300, class #34131, Moving Beyond Gridlock: Making Democracy Work

TuTh 6:00 – 8:00 PM, Ballantine 016  [starting Oct. 22] L Napoli

Do you wonder about political gridlock? Do you have concerns about how the U.S. government functions? This course explores the concepts of debate, dialogue, conflict and deliberation and the impact on the U.S. democratic system. Through interactive exercises, case studies and class discussions, students will gain insight about the essential role of deliberative democracy. In this 8-week course, students will choose contemporary issues to analyze by exploring the issue, identifying areas of conflict and finding alternatives to polarized debate. Throughout the course, students will examine the role of citizen participation and its potential for strengthening democracy at local, state and federal levels.
NONPROFIT PROFESSIONAL ROUNDTABLES
Wednesday, October 9; 7:00-8:30 p.m.; State Room East, Indiana Memorial Union

Have you always wanted to work at a nonprofit, but worry about finding positions in this competitive sector? Networking in the field can give you a step above the competition. At this event, you will have the opportunity to speak one on one with several nonprofit professionals. Learn about organizations and make connections in the field to help your job and internship search. Unlike other events where employers lecture to large groups, this event will allow you to speak individually with nonprofit representatives from diverse organizations and gain valuable face time with potential future contacts. Students should RSVP through your myIUcareers account, accessible at iucareers.com. Business casual attire (dress shirt, dress pants, or skirt) is appropriate for this event. Learn more here: http://www.indiana.edu/~career/services/events/index.php?event_type=4&event_id=1892

SAM DALEY-HARRIS, ACTIVIST/AUTHOR, RECLAIMING OUR DEMOCRACY, FOUNDER OF RESULTS
Tuesday, October 8, 7:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.; CG 1034. See the top of this newsletter for an invitation to attend a special lunch with Mr. Daley-Harris!

Sam Daley-Harris is dedicated to inspiring ordinary citizens to make a difference. He founded the organization RESULTS in 1980 to empower citizens to influence policies that would fight hunger and poverty. In his book Reclaiming Our Democracy, he explains the need for citizens to become active participants in our democracy in order to create positive change in the world. SOCIAL MEDIA, PRIVACY, AND THE GOOD LIFE
Thursday, October 10, 4:00-5:30 p.m.; Poynter Center, 618 E. Third Street

Technology has made it possible for us to be more connected than ever before. The cost is our privacy. How to best balance those two important aspects of human life — connection and privacy — can be found in what counts as the good life. Deni Elliott, Director and Professor, Department of Journalism and Media Studies at the University of South Florida, will share her recent work and lead a discussion. RSVP to eayoung@indiana.edu.

CONNECTEDNESS: MODERN INTELLIGENCE & MY LIFE AS A SPY with Valerie Plame Wilson
Tuesday, November 12, 7 p.m.; Alumni Hall

As a covert CIA Operations Officer, Valerie Plame Wilson worked to protect America’s national security and prevent the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction. Without warning, in 2003 she found herself at the heart of a political firestorm when senior White House and State Department officials revealed her secret status to several national journalists — including a syndicated conservative newspaper columnist who published her name. Valerie Plame Wilson discusses national security and privacy issues.
