PACE Courses for Spring

1. SPRING 2016 COURSES THAT COUNT TOWARD THE PACE CERTIFICATE
See PACE courses and electives offered as you prepare to enroll for spring at this link:
http://www.pace.indiana.edu/forms/Spring%202016%20courses.pdf

2. PACE-C 400 ISSUE FORUM, CLASS #10668, 1 CR., 1 DAY MEETING, TOPIC: ABORTION AND REPRODUCTIVE RIGHTS
The PACE C-400 Issue Forum is a 1 day, 1 cr. class that meets on Saturday, Feb. 27, with a back-up date in case of bad weather (Sat, March 5). It is open to any undergraduate at IU Bloomington, with some seats reserved for students in the College of Arts & Sciences. Class requirements include preparation readings and writing and a post-Forum assignment to complete, in addition to participation in the Forum. The Issues Forum is organized and led by PACE's trained student moderators. Students who attend the Forum will hear the perspectives of expert panelists, participate in small group dialogues, and practice working with various perspectives on complex issues. Call with any questions, 812.856.7882.
http://pace.indiana.edu/C-400IssueForum.shtml

Events of Interest

3. ERASING STEREOTYPES—TONIGHT!
Tuesday, October 27, 7 p.m.; IMU State Room East
Are you interested in issues of social justice? Do the problems of police brutality, racial profiling, unfair treatment within the criminal justice system, and stereotyping bother you? Come join the Ladies of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Incorporated, The IU chapter of National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and the Political and Civic Engagement program for a night of productive dialogue and action. You will help determine which topics will be discussed and in which small group or groups you will participate. There will be dessert refreshments and great discussion you won’t want to miss! All you need to bring is yourself, an open mind, and willingness to participate! We can’t wait to see you and hear what you have to say. We are Erasing Stereotypes on our way to progress. See you there! For more information, contact Sidney Harris at sidlharr@indiana.edu.

4. LOVING WORK
Friday, October 30, 10:30 a.m.; CAHI Institute, 1211 East Atwater Avenue
Kathi Weeks teaches in the Women’s Studies Program at Duke University. Her primary interests are political theory, feminist theory, Marxist thought, the critical study of work, and utopian studies. She is the author of The Problem with Work: Feminism, Marxism, Antipower Politics and Postwork Imaginaries and Constituting Feminist Subjects, and a co-editor of The Jameson Reader.

5. GREENING THE STATEHOUSE SUSTAINABILITY GATHERING, REGISTER NOW
Saturday, November 14, 2015, 10:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. (Registration and networking begin at 9:00)
University of Indianapolis, Schweitzer Student Center http://www.hecweb.org/gts15/
Please join Hoosier Environmental Council for the 8th Annual Greening the Statehouse, the largest annual sustainability gathering in Indiana!
Leadership, Internships & Careers

6 GLOBAL CAREER PANEL
October 28, 6-8 p.m., Global & International Studies Building, Auditorium (Room 0001) and Atrium
Employers with an international focus will be in Bloomington to discuss opportunities for an international career and answer your questions about the globalizing workforce. The Global Career Panel will feature 9 employers from a wide variety of industries and consist of a panel discussion, a catered reception and a chance to speak directly with the individual employers. Come with questions and be prepared to learn about different ways you can contribute to the world as a professional. All students are welcome to attend.

7 CITY YEAR INFORMATION SESSION
Thursday, October 29, 6 – 7 p.m.
Come to meet National Recruiter Reid Lawrence and learn about City Year (and the benefits). Pizza provided, RSVP on SPEACareers.

8 HUNGRY FOR SUCCESS? COME DISCOVER THE PATH TO A CAREER YOU’LL LOVE
Wednesday, November 4, 5:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.; Tree Suites, Indiana Memorial Union
Geared towards freshmen and sophomores, but is open to all students and all majors. Do you have questions regarding your major or career path? Are you interested in getting a leg up on your future? Come enjoy an evening with free food & giveaways, hear from student leaders as well as specialized career services representatives, gain tools and information regarding your degree requirements, and get closer to determining a major and/or career path.

9 IU ALUMNI ASSOCIATION’S LIFE AFTER IU SERIES
Wednesday, Nov. 18, 7 p.m.; DeVault Alumni Center, 1000 E. 17th St.
Be ready to impress at your next professional event. In this “What the Fork?” session, an etiquette coach will improve your self-confidence and sharpen your communication skills, letting you feel at ease in any situation. From utensils to handshakes to tipping, you’re sure to be a polished Hoosier. Easy parking, free food. Register online: myiuoa.com/lifeafteriu.

10 VOLUNTEER IN BLOOMINGTON!
And your connection to an organization can develop into an internship project for later...
Volunteering is a great way to meet new people, to help those in need, to use your skills or learn new ones, to keep your resume current and to have fun! Connect to the Bloomington community by making service part of your IU experience! At the Bloomington Volunteer Network website, you’ll find over 400 volunteer opportunities in every possible area. Whether it’s volunteering with kids, animals or senior citizens, in issue areas like domestic violence, homelessness or hunger, or building up a community asset like WonderLab or the Buskirk Chumley Theater, Bloomington is waiting for you to join in! Go to the Volunteer Network website at www.BloomingtonVolunteerNetwork.org, email volunteer@bloomington.in.gov or call Lucy at 812-349-3433 to learn more.

11 PICKERING FELLOWSHIP THROUGH THE WASHINGTON CENTER
The U.S. Department of State has selected The Washington Center as its operating partner for the 2016 Thomas R. Pickering Foreign Affairs Fellowship. The Fellowship is designed to attract outstanding individuals from all ethnic, racial and social backgrounds who have an interest in pursuing a Foreign Service career with the U.S. Department of State. Women, members of minority groups historically underrepresented in the Foreign Service and students with financial need are encouraged to apply.

12 WANT TO TAKE A TRIP TO NEW ORLEANS AND MAKE A DIFFERENCE?
Youth Advocating Leadership & Learning (Y’ALL) will host call-out meetings on November 12 and November 18 in Ballantine Hall room 344 at 7 p.m. for its Winter Break Service Trip. The trip to New Orleans will take place from January 3 - 9, 2016, and will help repair hurricane-damaged homes. The cost of this trip will be $300, which covers transportation, food, and lodging for the week. Spots are limited and will not be reserved until the $300 payment, as well as general and consent forms, are received. Payment may be turned in at the callout meetings or collection dates, which are November 4 and 5 and December 2 and 3, between 12:00-4:00 p.m. at the Lit Desk in the IMU (across from the Student Tower elevator). If you cannot attend the call-out meetings or have any questions, please e-mail yall@indiana.edu. Forms may be submitted to https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1GuIkZIGbIBGyaUy4VsgK42SB30h4WLVd88gsjrqs/viewform?c=0&w=1.

13 WASHINGTON LEADERSHIP PROGRAM (SPEA SEMESTER IN D.C.)
ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR FALL 2016 OR SPRING 2017
If you will be a junior or senior in Fall 2016 or Spring 2017, you may now apply. PACE will count the internship as well as one of the seminars as an elective toward the certificate, if you consult with the PACE internship director when you are accepted.
https://spea.indiana.edu/student-experience/enrichment-opportunities/wlp/