Announcements from the PACE Office

Like us on Facebook!

1. PACE CALL-OUT MEETING

   Tuesday, November 5, 7:00 - 8:00 p.m. Ballantine 305

   The Political And Civic Engagement certificate program will be hosting a call-out meeting where students can learn about how PACE aims to shape knowledgeable, effective, and committed citizens. Members of the PACE Student Leadership Council, Program Director Michael Grossberg, and Associate Director Joelle Bergonzi will be present to discuss how PACE develops students’ skills through its interdisciplinary curriculum and hands-on activities. Students can also learn about internships, community service projects, and other opportunities available through the PACE program.

   Invite your friends, classmates, ....

   PACE welcomes any student to attend; those interested should feel free to stop by at any point during the meeting. Pizza will be served.

2. PACE’S RAHAF SAFI NAMED IU PRESIDENTIAL INTERN

   Congratulations to PACE student Rahaf Safi, who has been appointed Indiana University's fifth presidential intern. Her internship, for the 2013-14 academic year, will focus on initiatives related to IU’s international strategic partnerships and the School of Global and International Studies. She was one of 62 U.S. students to receive the award, which recognizes outstanding student leaders who are committed to public service. Presidential interns are high-achieving IU undergraduates who are selected to work in the Office of the President, contributing to the long-term improvement of the university while gaining valuable leadership skills and experience. She is the second consecutive PACE student to be chosen as a presidential intern, following Catherine Krege in 2012-13!

3. SPRING 2014 “COURSES THAT COUNT” TOWARD THE PACE CERTIFICATE

   Listings of PACE courses and electives that count toward the PACE certificate during the Spring 2014 term are available at http://pace.indiana.edu/forms/Spr14%20courses%20that%20count.pdf.

4. ENROLL FOR THE POPULAR PACE-C 400 ISSUE FORUM – 1 CREDIT FOR 1 DAY

   The course is offered in the spring semester and you can register now during continuing student enrollment. The one-credit course will be offered this year on Saturday afternoon, February 22, with assignments before and after. No matter what topic is chosen by the student leaders, participants can be assured of a rich, lively opportunity for learning about democratic deliberation. ANY student interested in discussing important & complex issues with peers and interacting with an expert panel is welcome to add the course.
READY TO APPLY FOR THE POLITICAL AND CIVIC ENGAGEMENT CERTIFICATE?

It’s a straightforward, easy procedure and should take about 10 minutes if you are enrolled in or have taken the beginning credits. Follow the steps here to add the certificate to your degree:
http://pace.indiana.edu/program/apply.shtml

If you have not already done so -- please schedule an appointment with the Associate Director, Joelene Bergonzi, to consult about your interests and priorities and how you can fit PACE into your curriculum. Call 812-856-1747 or stop by Ballantine 132.

Events of Interest

SAVE THE DATE: WASHINGTON POST COLUMNIST DAVID IGNATIUS
Tuesday, November 19, 8:15-9:30 a.m., Hutton Honors College
The Hutton Honors College and Wells program are partnering with the School of Journalism to host a breakfast with Washington Post columnist David Ignatius. PACE students will be invited to sign up. NOTE if you are free on that date and interested in attending. Watch for information about the sign-up process closer to November 19.

PUBLIC MEETING ON INCARCERATION IN BLOOMINGTON
Tuesday, November 19, 5:00-6:30 p.m.; Monroe County Public Library
Come out to deliberate how Bloomington could best use funds to benefit people in the prison system. Specifically, we will be trying to address the question: How should Bloomington use its tax dollars to better rehabilitate/transition its repetitive inmates? All parties with any level of knowledge are welcome to participate. Some general information can be sent to anyone who is interested. Please RSVP or request information by emailing carostep@umail.iu.edu.

Internships, Careers, and Scholarships

NEW CAREER DEVELOPMENT CENTER, ARTS & SCIENCES CAREER SERVICES WEBSITES
The Career Development Center website highlights resources and services for new students, exploratory or undeclared majors, and students thinking of changing their current major. The new website can be found at: www.cdc.indiana.edu. The Arts and Sciences Career Services website is geared directly towards students in The College of Arts and Sciences, providing them with resources and services for developing liberal arts careers. The new website can be found at: www.ascs.indiana.edu. Social media sites - such as Twitter (@IUCareers), Facebook (Indiana University-Career Development Center), LinkedIn (Indiana University Career Development Center), and Pinterest (@IUCareers) will continue to serve both the Career Development Center and Arts and Sciences Career Services. iucareer@indiana.edu

More than 205 internships currently posted, including:
Junior Achievement of Central Indiana, Social Media Intern
HOW TO SUCCEED IN BUSINESS AS A LIBERAL ARTS MAJOR: DOUGLAS FREELAND, MCDONALD’S USA DIRECTOR - CUSTOMER ENGAGEMENT
Tuesday, October 29; 4:00-5:00 p.m.; Career Development Center, 625 North Jordan Ave.
HOW TO SUCCEED IN BUSINESS AS A LIBERAL ARTS MAJOR: STEVE ROSS, PRESIDENT OF SQUIRE RIDGE COMPANY, LLC
Friday, November 1; 10:00-11:00 a.m.; Indiana Memorial Union, Redbud Room
BROADCAST MEDIA AND ENTERTAINMENT NETWORKING NIGHT
Tuesday, November 5; 6:30-8:30 p.m.; DeVault Alumni Center, 1000 E. 17th St.
PEACE CORPS EMPLOYER INFORMATION SESSION
Tuesday, November 12, 5:30-6:30 p.m.; Career Development Center, 625 N. Jordan Ave.
WRITING, EDITING, AND PUBLISHING NETWORKING NIGHT
Monday, November 18; 6:30-8:30 p.m.; DeVault Alumni Center, 1000 E. 17th St.

WASHINGTON LEADERSHIP PROGRAM CALLOUT
Monday, November 4, 7 p.m. in BU 423; food will be provided
The School of Public and Environmental Affairs’ IU in DC Washington Leadership Program provides IU undergraduate students with a unique opportunity to immerse themselves in the fast-paced world of Washington, D.C., politics, policy, public affairs, and more. In the classroom and through exciting internships, students participate fully in the city’s workaday world, conducting research, preparing briefings, and honing a wide range of other professional skills. Participants earn twelve credits hours for their semester in DC: six for the internship and three for each of two immersive courses taught by experienced Washington veterans. The meeting is a general info session for the program but it will be geared more to students applying for fall 2014 class. There will be a presentation about the program/application process and Q&A with former students. If you cannot attend the meeting and you wish to make an appointment, or if you have any questions, contact iuindc@indiana.edu.
http://www.indiana.edu/~spea/iuindc_programs/about/index.shtml
SECRETS TO BREAKING THE INTERVIEW CODE

Monday, November 4, 6:30-7:15 p.m., Whittenberger/IMU

Come hear the secrets of how you can increase your odds of landing your first career opportunity. Lyman Montgomery will give insights into the questions that employers ask you during interviews.

INDIANA NONPROFITS PROJECT DATABASE

The Indiana Nonprofits: Scope and Community Dimensions project’s nonprofit database has been updated through April 2013. A comprehensive listing of Indiana nonprofits is available in a searchable format. In the database, you can search by county or across the whole state and view nonprofit listings from the Indiana Secretary of State, IRS filings, and Indiana Business Research Center listings. For more information about the development of the database, visit http://www.indiana.edu/~nonprof/searchable_database.php.