Announcements from the PACE Office

1. SPRING 2014 “COURSES THAT COUNT” TOWARD THE PACE CERTIFICATE

   PACE courses and electives that count toward the PACE certificate offered during the Spring 2014 term are available at http://pace.indiana.edu/forms/Spr14%20courses%20that%20count.pdf.

   The first courses for the Political and Civic Engagement certificate are:
   - PACE-C 250 Leadership and Public Policy, 3 credits. (2 classes are offered in the spring)
     - Any interested student may enroll. For HHC, see class # 30405.
   - PACE-C 295 Citizenship and Careers, 2 credits. (Wed 4-6 PM)
     - Students pursuing the PACE certificate may enroll with online authorization. Contact pace@indiana.edu.

   ➔ ATTENTION JUNIORS: Be sure to plan your internship and to complete all the other requirements for the certificate before taking the capstone seminar, PACE-C 450, in spring of your senior year!

2. ENROLL FOR THE POPULAR PACE-C 400 ISSUE FORUM – 1 CREDIT FOR 1 DAY

   Feb. 22, 2014, Woodburn Hall

   Interested students from any major are invited to participate in this event for credit and a great experience in democratic deliberation.

   PACE-C 400 Issue Forum is a one-credit course, offered this year on Saturday afternoon, February 22, with assignments before and after. Participants will find a rich, lively opportunity for learning about democratic deliberation. ANY student interested in discussing important & complex issues with peers and interacting with an expert panel is welcome to add the course. Trained PACE student moderators will lead the small group deliberation. An expert panel will interact with the large group in the middle of the session.

   PACE-C 400 Issue Forum topic: National Security – America’s Role in the World; Saturday, Feb. 22, 2014. Enroll in class #24978.
READY TO APPLY FOR THE POLITICAL AND CIVIC ENGAGEMENT CERTIFICATE?

It’s a straightforward, easy procedure and should take about 10 minutes if you are enrolled in or have taken the beginning credits*. Follow the steps here to add the certificate to your degree: http://pace.indiana.edu/program/apply.shtml

*If you have not already done so -- please schedule an appointment with the Associate Director, Joelene Bergonzi, to consult about your interests and priorities and how you can fit PACE into your curriculum. Call 812-856-1747 or stop by Ballantine 132.

Campus Events of Interest

4 UNDERGRADUATE BREAKFAST/DISCUSSION WITH WASHINGTON POST’S DAVID IGNATIUS
Tues., Nov. 19, 8:15-9:30 a.m.; HHC Great Room; Sign-up Required: See Details Below
David Ignatius has spent his 35-year career as an editor, reporter, columnist, and author with a focus on global politics, economics, and international affairs. His current columns appear twice weekly in the Washington Post, and he is a frequent guest on Sunday morning political talk shows. Rise and shine on November 19 to enjoy breakfast with Ignatius and learn more about the world. Visit http://www.indiana.edu/~iubhonor/idxextra/fall13/ignatius.php for more information.

SIGN-UP INFO: If you are interested in attending this undergraduate breakfast, please check your schedule to make sure you are available for the entire event and e-mail Anna Duquaine (aduquain@indiana.edu), indicating you wish to sign up for the "Ignatius" breakfast and including your name, e-mail address, year in school, and field(s) of study. Space is limited so we will let you know by e-mail if a space was available when you replied. The breakfast is co-sponsored by the School of Journalism, the Hutton Honors College, and the Wells Scholars Program and is open, depending on available space, to any IU undergraduate.

5 IRAN AND THE US: BREAKTHROU OR FALSE HOPE
Wednesday, November 13, 5:30 p.m.; Maurer School of Law, Room 125
Please join the Center for the Study of the Middle East for a very interesting discussion on Iran. This lecture, Iran and the US: Breakthrough or False Hope, will be given by acclaimed scholar and author Haleh Esfandiari, who was arrested by Iranian security forces and spent 105 days in solitary confinement. All are welcome and encouraged to attend this interesting discussion.

6 “COFFEE & POLITICS” TUESDAY MEETING SERIES
Union Board Current Events & Issues committee is hosting ‘Coffee & Politics’ every Tuesday at 7 p.m. – 8 p.m. in the IMU Starbucks Gallery.

7 OXFAM AT IU HUNGER BANQUET
Wednesday, November 20, 7:30 p.m.; Neal Marshall Grand Hall
The Oxfam Club at IU invites you to the annual Oxfam Hunger Banquet. This event is an interactive simulation of the global food system. This event exposes the inequality present in the current food system and how it affects those groups who happen to be at the lower end of said inequality. Because the event is interactive, we not only get to learn about how the food system operates; we also get a little taste of it. Free food will be provided from restaurants such as Anatolia, Dats, and Lucky Express.
