PSA NOVEMBER VOLUNTEER PROJECT

Wednesday, Nov. 30, 5:30-7 PM
Hoosier Hills Food Bank
The PACE Student Association is devoting November to the theme of hunger and homelessness. A volunteer project will take place at the Hoosier Hills Food Bank on Wed., Nov. 30, involving repacking food to help with the rush of the holidays. PSA will have a meeting on Wed., Nov. 9 at 7 PM (location TBA), with plans to invite a speaker from campus or the community to talk about the current theme. If you have any suggestions for someone you think would be interesting, please email iupsa@indiana.edu.

Q & A SESSION WITH DR. TONY BENNETT

Monday, Nov. 7, 6:00 - 7:30 PM
Fine Arts Building, Room 102
Come engage in a question and answer session with Dr. Tony Bennett, superintendent of Indiana public schools. Indiana was named 2011’s “reformiest state” by the Fordham Institute due to the extensive education reform legislation passed this year. This is an incredible opportunity to talk with a leading figure of this reform movement and discuss the impact these reforms will have on Indiana schools, teachers and students. This event is sponsored by the IU Education Policy Student Association (EDPOSA), and is free and open to the public! Free dinner provided.

2012 CIVIL RIGHTS IMMERSION TRIP: WASHINGTON, D.C.

January 12 - 15
Explore the Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial and other monuments on the National Mall, the African American Civil War Museum, the National Portrait Gallery’s “Struggle for Justice” exposition, Howard University, and Capitol Hill. The cost of this educational experience is only $25 and includes lodging for two days (quad occupancy), transportation, and museum admissions and educational materials. Participants will be responsible for food costs and any other expenses. To apply to be one of the 55 chosen participants, visit: http://www.cue.indiana.edu
