1  PACE CALL-OUT MEETING—THIS TUESDAY EVENING!
Tuesday, November 5, 7:00 - 8:00 p.m. Ballantine 305

The Political And Civic Engagement certificate program will be hosting a call-out meeting where students can learn about how PACE shapes knowledgeable, effective, and committed citizens. Members of the PACE Student Leadership Council, Program Director Michael Grossberg, and Associate Director Joene Bergonzi will be present to discuss how PACE develops students’ skills through its interdisciplinary curriculum and hands-on activities. Students can also learn about internships, and other opportunities available through the PACE program.

Invite your friends, classmates ... PACE welcomes any student to attend; those interested should feel free to stop by at any point during the meeting. Pizza will be served.

2  SPRING 2014 “COURSES THAT COUNT” TOWARD THE PACE CERTIFICATE
PACE courses and electives that count toward the PACE certificate offered during the Spring 2014 term are available at http://pace.indiana.edu/forms/Spr14%20courses%20that%20count.pdf.

3  ENROLL FOR THE POPULAR PACE-C 400 ISSUE FORUM – 1 CREDIT FOR 1 DAY
Student leaders of the Forum are discussing National Security as the topic!
The course is offered in the spring semester and you can register now during continuing student enrollment. The one-credit course will be offered this year on Saturday afternoon, February 22, with assignments before and after. No matter what topic is chosen, participants can be assured of a rich, lively opportunity for learning about democratic deliberation. ANY student interested in discussing important & complex issues with peers and interacting with an expert panel is welcome to add the course.

4  READY TO APPLY FOR THE POLITICAL AND CIVIC ENGAGEMENT CERTIFICATE?
It’s a straightforward, easy procedure and should take about 10 minutes if you are enrolled in or have taken the beginning credits*. Follow the steps here to add the certificate to your degree:
