2. MINORITY LAW DAY
   Saturday, February 21, 9:00 - 2:30 p.m.; Maurer School of Law
   Minority Law Day gives curious and ambitious students an inside look at law school. During the Minority Law Day program, students will meet with professors, students, and practicing lawyers and have a chance to ask them about their career choices. Plus they’ll find out how and when to apply, how to pay for law school, and other important information about becoming a lawyer. Registration is now open! Minority Law Day is free to attend but registration is required for planning purposes. Breakfast and lunch will be complimentary. For more information and registration, visit www.law.indiana.edu/minoritylawday/ or lawadmis@indiana.edu (812) 855-4765

3. CAREER DINNER SYMPOSIUM
   Thursday, February 26, 6:00 – 8:00 p.m.; Indiana Memorial Union Tudor Room
   The idea behind the Symposium is to connect you with professionals who reflect your academic or career interests and allow you the opportunity to network. During this event, you will sit down to have a wonderfully catered dinner with professionals who represent your discipline or field. You will have the opportunity to ask career related questions of professionals to gain valuable insights, suggestions, or recommendations as to how you may duplicate such success. The professionals are purely sharing information based upon their previous experience(s), addressing any questions that you may have concerning preparation, trends, and/or opportunities for job shadowing, mentoring, etc. So you should certainly take full advantage of the occasion.    March 3, 5:00 p.m.; Bloomington City Hall
   5:00: Reception and Networking;
   5:30: Welcome, Emerging Leader Award, Presentations and Panel, Q&A
   Interested students are invited to attend the Women’s Leadership Development Event, presented by the Bloomington Commission on the Status of Women.
   Theme: “Lead With a Story”—Emerging Leader Award to Alycin Bektesh, who has led the WFHB News Department and covered issues surrounding women’s health, equal rights, and sexual assault and was a mentor and role model to the hundreds of women who join WFHB. Alycin has emerged as a strong leader in both the field of journalism and as a volunteer in the community.
   Panel: Dr. Audrey T. McCluskey, African American and Diaspora Studies; Caroline Dowd-Higgins, Director of Career & Professional Development for the IU Alumni Association; Jessica Levandoski, film and media producer.
   There is no fee to participate in this event. For more information, please contact owenss@bloomington.in.gov
5 SERVICE ENGAGEMENT SUMMIT
March 26-27; Indianapolis Marriott North
Supporting Students in Social Ventures: Preparing students for a life of career and service
Join us for the two-day event featuring presentations and workshops from state, national, and local leaders in the field of service and community engagement in higher education. Included in the program is a day-long workshop for students. The evening of March 26 will celebrate the signing of a compact between 35 Indiana college and university presidents and chancellors as they publicly agree to commit themselves to their communities through service while preparing students as future leaders. This declaration on the part of Indiana Campus Compact members, signifies the commitment they have made to dedicate themselves to campus and community engagement. The evening program will include a reception, the public singing of the compact, and an awards ceremony honoring faculty, students, staff, and community members who have connected service and learning in a reciprocal way. 7 U.S. DEPARTMENT OF STATE STUDENT INTERNSHIP PROGRAM
Applications are now being accepted for the U.S. Department of State 2015 Fall Student Internship Program (unpaid). This program offers U.S. citizen undergraduate and graduate students the opportunity to participate in 10-week, unpaid internships that provide intensive educational and professional experience within the environment of America’s principle foreign affairs agency. The unpaid internships are available at many of the over 270 U.S. embassies, consulates and missions to international organizations around the world, as well as at the Department of State in Washington, D.C. and other locations throughout the U.S. Participants gain first-hand, hands-on experience, and learn the realities of working in – and with – Foreign and Civil Service professionals who are at the forefront of America’s diplomatic efforts. Consider spending your Fall 2015 with the U.S. Department of State, witnessing and participating in the formulation and implementation of U.S. foreign policy, working closely with the U.S. diplomats and civil servants who carry out America’s foreign policy initiatives. Apply at http://careers.state.gov/intern/student-internships Please note that the deadline to submit completed applications is March 2, 2015. http://viewpoints.iu.edu/policy-briefings/2015/02/06/iu-bloomington-panel-to-discuss-the-politics-of-teaching-history/
