We are co-sponsoring some events coming soon;
item #1 is just for PACE students!

1. PACE COMMUNITY CONNECTIONS NIGHT
   - PLANNED AND HOSTED BY THE PACE STUDENT LEADERSHIP COUNCIL
   - Thursday, April 9, 5:15 - 7 p.m.; Maurer School of Law Faculty Lounge
   PACE students are invited to network with four community guests in small groups. The students will sit at small roundtables, with one guest per table, and will rotate among the tables. Students can gain insights into various aspects of political and civic engagement and have a greater appreciation for Bloomington’s leading citizens and this active community. Guests: entrepreneur Skip Daley, Monroe County Circuit Court Judge Mary Ellen Diekhoff, Shalom Center executive director Forrest Gilmore, and Bloomington Deputy Mayor Adam Wason.

2. IT’S NOT SO BLACK & WHITE: TALKING RACE, FROM FERGUSON TO BLOOMINGTON
   - Thursday, March 26, 7 p.m.; Alumni Hall, Indiana Memorial Union
   Join us for a campus and community-wide forum that examines the historical roots and current incidences of state-sanctioned violence against black people in America. The event will feature three speakers: Professor Akwasi Owusu-Bempah, Criminal Justice, IU-Bloomington, a specialist on racial profiling, policing, and the War on Drugs; The Hon. Valeri Haughton, Judge of the Circuit Court, 10th Circuit and Presiding Judge, Monroe County Board of Judges; and Professor William Jelani Cobb, History and Director of Africana Studies, University of Connecticut, and journalist for The New Yorker. The session will be moderated by Professor Jeannine Bell, Maurer School of Law, IU-Bloomington and author of Hate Thy Neighbor: Move-in Violence and the Persistence of Racial Segregation in American Housing. The audience will have opportunities to engage the speakers with questions and comments after their presentations in a town-hall style dialogue. Following this, representatives from local and campus organizations will be on hand to distribute information on how to get involved in local initiatives working towards the betterment of our community.

3. WORTH FIGHTING FOR: AN ARMY RANGER’S JOURNEY OUT OF THE MILITARY & ACROSS AMERICA
   - Tuesday, April 14, 6:30–8 p.m.; Ballantine 228

4. ONE DOLLAR ONE VOTE: WILL DEMOCRACY SURVIVE CITIZENS UNITED?
   - Wednesday, April 15, 7-9 p.m.; Maurer School of Law, Moot Court Room 123
   Panelists: former U.S. Representative and Director of the Center on Congress at Indiana University Lee Hamilton; former Mayor of Fort Wayne and Director of Indiana University’s Civic Leaders Center Paul Helmke; Indiana Representative District 61 and sponsor of the Indiana Resolution to amend the U.S. Constitution Matt Pierce; Perry 5 Vice Precinct Committeeman Greg Knott. Panel moderator: IU Political Science Professor and author of Party Politics in America Margie Hershey.
