SAVE THE DATE FOR PACE COMMUNITY CONNECTIONS NIGHT
– PLANNED AND HOSTED BY THE PACE STUDENT LEADERSHIP COUNCIL
Thursday, April 9, 5:15 – 7 p.m.; Maurer School of Law, Faculty Lounge 310
You are invited to network with four community leaders in small roundtable groups. Gain insights into various aspects of political and civic engagement and a greater appreciation for Bloomington’s leading citizens and this active community. Refreshments served at 5:15; introduction and timed discussion segments start at 5:30.

Our guests are:
1. Politically-involved entrepreneur Skipford Daley,
2. Monroe County Circuit Court Judge Mary Ellen Diekhoff,
3. Shalom Center Executive Director Rev. Forrest Gilmore, and
4. Bloomington Deputy Mayor Adam Wason.

PACE is co-sponsoring the following 3 campus events:

1. IT’S NOT SO BLACK & WHITE: TALKING RACE, FROM FERGUSON TO BLOOMINGTON
Thursday, March 26, 7 p.m.; Alumni Hall, Indiana Memorial Union, Followed by a Justice Fair in the Solarium.
Join us for a campus and community-wide forum that examines the historical roots and current incidences of state-sanctioned violence against black people in America. The event will feature three speakers: Professor Akwasi Owusu-Bempah, Criminal Justice, IU-Bloomington, a specialist on racial profiling, policing, and the War on Drugs; The Hon. Valeri Haughton, Judge of the Circuit Court, 10th Circuit and Presiding Judge, Monroe County Board of Judges; and Professor William Jelani Cobb, History and Director of Africana Studies, University of Connecticut, and journalist for The New Yorker. The session will be moderated by Professor Jeannine Bell, Maurer School of Law, IU-Bloomington and author of Hate Thy Neighbor: Move-in Violence and the Persistence of Racial Segregation in American Housing. The audience will have opportunities to engage the speakers with questions and comments after their presentations in a town-hall style dialogue. Following this, representatives from local and campus organizations will be on hand to distribute information on how to get involved in local initiatives working towards the betterment of our community.

2. WORTH FIGHTING FOR: AN ARMY RANGER’S JOURNEY OUT OF THE MILITARY & ACROSS AMERICA
Tuesday, April 14, 6:30–8 p.m.; Ballantine 228
ONE DOLLAR ONE VOTE: WILL DEMOCRACY SURVIVE CITIZENS UNITED?
Wednesday, April 15, 7-9 p.m.; Maurer School of Law, Moot Court Room 123
Panelists: former U.S. Representative and Director of the Center on Congress at Indiana University Lee Hamilton; former Mayor of Fort Wayne and Director of Indiana University’s Civic Leaders Center Paul Helmke; Indiana Representative District 61 and sponsor of the Indiana Resolution to amend the U.S. Constitution Matt Pierce; Perry 5 Vice Precinct Committeeman Greg Knott. Panel moderator: IU Political Science Professor and author of Party Politics in America Margie Hershey.

Of Interest
FERGUSON: POLICING’S PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE [THIS THURSDAY BEFORE #2 ABOVE]
Thursday, March 26, 2:00-4:00 p.m.; IU Maurer School of Law, Moot Court Room (Room 123)
Speakers: Jeannine Bell, Indiana University Maurer School of Law; Khalil Muhammad, New York Public Library Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture; Eugene O’Donnell, John Jay College of Criminal Justice; Akwasi Owusu-Bempah, Indiana University Department of Criminal Justice. This panel features internationally renowned scholars of race and criminal justice, all of whom have served as frequent media commentators on the subject of Ferguson. Why did Ferguson police practices culminating in the death of Michael Brown—practices which were by no means unusual historically or regionally—spark such an unusual public response? What parallels, if any, can be drawn between the civil rights movement of the 1960s (in terms of social causes and legal possibilities) and ongoing Ferguson-related social movement activities? How do comparative experiences elsewhere in the world illuminate the events of Ferguson? What are the limits and possibilities for police reform?

IU PERMACULTURE COURSE ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS
Permaculture is a holistic design technique for creating sustainable human communities that are in harmony with a particular natural environment. This hands-on course provides students with innovative conceptual tools. The course will take place from May 31 through June 14 at the Lazy Black Bear, located just south of Paoli, Indiana. Students who successfully complete the course will receive permaculture certification and 3 N&M IU credits. The application deadline is March 30. More details at: http://www.indiana.edu/~llc/academics/permaculture.shtml.

COMMUNITY ORCHARD WORK & LEARN DAYS
Starting on Sat., April 4, the Bloomington Community Orchard will hold weekly Sat. work and learn days. Sessions in April and May will be from 1-4 p.m., sessions from June through Aug. will be from 5-8 p.m., and those from Sept. through Nov. will be from 1-4 p.m. Each workday focuses on weeding, mulching, pruning, or general maintenance of the nearly 100 diverse fruit trees and plants. Workdays are open house style - volunteers join in when they are able, with no need to pre-register. STUDENT SUSTAINABILITY RESEARCH DEVELOPMENT GRANTS AVAILABLE
Applications are due by Friday, April 10 for the Sustainability Research Development Grant program, which provides opportunities for Indiana University students (both graduate and undergraduate) to develop new research programs related to sustainability. The grant program awards grants up to $10,000 to any graduate student and up to $3000 for any undergraduate student from the IU Bloomington campus. Funds may be applied to student fellowships (up to $5,000 for graduate students; $1000 for undergraduates) as well as field, laboratory, computational, or library research. Both individual applicants and teams are encouraged to apply. Priority will be given to high-quality interdisciplinary projects that include participants from multiple disciplines. Collaborative proposals that involve graduate-undergraduate research teams are encouraged. For more information on sustainability initiatives at Indiana University, see http://sustain.indiana.edu/. Questions can be directed to Andrew Predmore at sapredmo@indiana.edu. Apply at http://sustain.indiana.edu/programs/sustainability-research-development-grants/index.php

INTERNSHIP SCHOLARSHIPS
PACE offers two kinds of scholarships for your internship: the PACE Hutton scholarship ($250 minimum) and the Block scholarship ($500 minimum). To apply, you can email our office after enrolling in PACE-C 410.

Another source of internship funding for the summer is the Parents Fund Internship Housing Grant, for undergraduates completing their second or third year. See the description on the bottom of this link: http://ascs.indiana.edu/experience/internships.html

Also, check out the Hutton Honors College awards (available to any undergraduate) at http://www.indiana.edu/~iubhon/hsd/grantthd.html

PACE advising for FALL REGISTRATION
We will be posting a list of fall courses that count as electives. Check with us if you have questions or see the general list at http://pace.indiana.edu/forms/PACE%20electives.pdf. Notice which steps apply to you.

1. Beginning students: Take PACE-C 250 Leadership and Public Policy (3 cr. Gen Ed S&H) – There is a section for Hutton Honors students also.
2. Along with or right after C250, take C295 Citizenship and Careers (2 cr. S/F). Request authorization from PACE, 812.856.7882. Or you can reply to this message.
3. Apply to add the certificate, so that you are eligible for leadership opportunities through the program and to count your internship. http://pace.indiana.edu/program/apply.shtml
4. You can be taking other courses that count as electives for the certificate all the way through, as long as ALL certificate requirements are completed before you need to take the spring capstone seminar, PACE-C 450, in your final year.
5. 2nd/3rd year students: Meet with Internship Director to discuss your plans. In the PACE office, there is a binder with one-page reports from each previous PACE internship experience, for your information, BH132. Also see information at http://pace.indiana.edu/program/internship.shtml.

If you have taken/are currently taking PACE-C 250 and one other course that counts toward PACE, please apply to add the certificate at http://pace.indiana.edu/program/apply.shtml. You will need the name and email of an instructor who will serve as a reference and then it takes 5-10 minutes to apply.

You must have added/applied to the certificate before you can complete a PACE internship, serve on the Leadership Council, or be considered for a Hutton PACE Scholar award.
