Events from PACE

1 PACE-only event: Invitation to PACE COMMUNITY CONNECTIONS NIGHT – NEXT THURSDAY

— PLANNED AND HOSTED BY THE PACE STUDENT LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

Thursday, April 9, 5:15 - 7 p.m.; Maurer School of Law, Faculty Lounge 310

Network with four community leaders in small roundtable groups. Gain insights into various aspects of political and civic engagement with some of Bloomington’s leading citizens. Refreshments served at 5:15; introduction and timed discussion segments start at 5:30. It is fine to arrive at 5:30.

All PACE students are invited to participate in this yearly opportunity. Previous networking events have resulted in students building connections for internships and jobs.

Featured Guests:

Skipford Daley, Entrepreneur

Daley works in Bloomington’s private sector as a Business Development Specialist, balancing budgets, providing solutions and creating jobs for local residents. His history includes graduate studies in Government and experience running a County Council office. He has been engaged with AmeriCorps, the American Red Cross, Bloomington Boys and Girls Club, Area 10 Agency on Aging, Bloomington Independent Restaurant Association and Moose Lodge 1081.

Monroe County Circuit Court Judge Mary Ellen Diekhoff

Monroe Circuit Court Judge Mary Ellen Diekhoff attended Indiana University School of Law-Bloomington. She was in private practice after graduation before spending 17 years with the Monroe County Prosecutors Office where she prosecuted a range of cases. In her role as First Deputy Prosecuting Attorney she was responsible for most major felony prosecutions. She was elected Monroe County Circuit Court Judge in the fall of 2004. She currently presides over a Criminal Court and is the presiding Judge of the Monroe County Drug Treatment Court.

Shalom Center Executive Director Forrest Gilmore

Gilmore serves as Executive Director of the Shalom Community Center, a day shelter and resource center for people experiencing hunger, homelessness, and poverty. Under his leadership, the Center has rapidly expanded to include the Crawford Homes program for chronically homeless, disabled adults and families, a rapid re-housing program for homeless, working families, and a street outreach program. He’s also a Unitarian minister, having served congregations in Monterey, CA and Princeton, NJ. He graduated from Cornell University with a Bachelor’s of Science in Natural Resources and Starr King School for the Ministry (a Unitarian Universalist seminary) with a Master’s of Divinity.

Bloomington Deputy Mayor Adam Wason

Adam Wason was appointed Deputy Mayor after serving in several roles in City government. After serving as the Public Affairs Specialist for the City of Bloomington Utilities he moved into the role of Assistant Director of Economic and Sustainable Development, focusing on small business relations. He most recently served as the Deputy Director of Public Works. Wason has a Bachelor of Science Degree in Public Management and Master’s Certificates in Non-Profit and Public Administration. He has participated in the Franklin Initiative Advisory Committee, Downtown Bloomington Inc. Board of Directors, Taste of Bloomington Executive Committee and as a founding member of the Lemonade Day Bloomington Advisory Committee. He has been recognized as the Franklin Initiative "Golden Key Member" and as "10 Under 40" award winner from the Greater Bloomington Chamber of Commerce.

STUDENT SUSTAINABILITY RESEARCH DEVELOPMENT GRANTS AVAILABLE
Applications are due by Friday, April 10 for the Sustainability Research Development Grant program, which provides opportunities for Indiana University students (both graduate and undergraduate) to develop new research programs related to sustainability. The grant program awards grants up to $10,000 to any graduate student and up to $3000 for any undergraduate student from the IU Bloomington campus. Funds may be applied to student fellowships (up to $5,000 for graduate students; $1000 for undergraduates) as well as field, laboratory, computational, or library research. Both individual applicants and teams are encouraged to apply. Priority will be given to high-quality interdisciplinary projects that include participants from multiple disciplines. Collaborative proposals that involve graduate-undergraduate research teams are encouraged. For more information on sustainability initiatives at Indiana University, see http://sustain.indiana.edu/. Questions can be directed to Andrew Predmore at sapredmo@indiana.edu. Apply at http://sustain.indiana.edu/programs/sustainability-research-development-grants/index.php.

From the PACE office

INTERNSHIP SCHOLARSHIPS
PACE offers two kinds of scholarships for your internship: the PACE Hutton scholarship ($250 minimum) and the Block scholarship ($500 minimum). To apply, you can email our office after enrolling in PACE-C 410.
Another source of internship funding for the summer is the Parents Fund Internship Housing Grant, for undergraduates completing their second or third year. See the description on the bottom of this link: http://asc.s.indiana.edu/experience/internships.html
Also, check out the Hutton Honors College awards (available to any undergraduate) at http://www.indiana.edu/~iubhonor/hds/granthd.php.

View Summer 2015 courses that count as electives: http://www.pace.indiana.edu/forms/Summer%2015%20courses.pdf

PACE advising for FALL REGISTRATION
A list of fall courses that count as electives is available at http://www.pace.indiana.edu/forms/Fall%2015%20PACE%20courses.pdf. Check with us if you have questions or see the general list at http://pace.indiana.edu/forms/PACE%20electives.pdf.

Notice which steps apply to you.
1. Beginning students: Take PACE-C 250 Leadership and Public Policy (3 cr. Gen Ed S&H) – There is a section for Hutton Honors students also.
2. Along with or right after C250, take C295 Citizenship and Careers (2 cr. S/F). Request authorization from PACE, 812.856.7882. Or you can reply to this message.
3. Apply to add the certificate, so that you are eligible for leadership opportunities through the program and to count your internship. http://pace.indiana.edu/program/apply.shtml
4. You can be taking other courses that count as electives for the certificate all the way through, as long as ALL certificate requirements are completed before you need to take the spring capstone seminar, PACE-C 450, in your final year.
5. 2nd/3rd year students: Meet with Internship Director to discuss your plans. In the PACE office, there is a binder with one-page reports from each previous PACE internship experience, for your information, BH132. Also see information at http://pace.indiana.edu/program/internship.shtml.
13 If you have taken/are currently taking PACE-C 250 and one other course that counts toward PACE, please apply to add the certificate at http://pace.indiana.edu/program/apply.shtml. You will need the name and email of an instructor who will serve as a reference and then it takes 5-10 minutes to apply.

You must have added/applied to the certificate before you can complete a PACE internship, serve on the Leadership Council, or be considered for a Hutton PACE Scholar award.
