3 NEW 2ND 8 WEEKS COURSE
If you find that you would like to drop a class for the fall and need another three credits – Please consider a new PACE course to be taught during the second 8 week session:

PACE-C 300, class #34131, Moving Beyond Gridlock: Making Democracy Work
TuTh 6:00 – 8:00 PM, Ballantine 016 [starting Oct. 22] L Napoli
Enrollment is open now and limited to 25 students for this active learning class. Questions may be addressed to pace@indiana.edu.

Do you wonder about political gridlock? Do you have concerns about how the U.S. government functions? This course explores the concepts of debate, dialogue, conflict and deliberation and the impact on the U.S. democratic system. Through interactive exercises, case studies and class discussions, students will gain insight about the essential role of deliberative democracy. In this 8-week course, students will choose contemporary issues to analyze by exploring the issue, identifying areas of conflict and finding alternatives to polarized debate. Throughout the course, students will examine the role of citizen participation and its potential for strengthening democracy at local, state and federal levels.

4 CAREER DEVELOPMENT CENTER ADVISING

Career Development Center and Arts & Sciences Career Services, 625 N. Jordan Ave, (812) 855-5234, www.iucareers.com

At the Career Development Center: drop-in career advising is available without appointment in the Career Development Center, which is located at 625 N. Jordan on the northwest corner of Jordan and 10th. Drop-in sessions last approximately 20 minutes. Career advisors answer general questions about majors or careers; critique resumes and cover letters; explain what resources are available on campus; and get students started on internship, job, and graduate school searches. If additional time is required, the advisor will refer the student to an hour-long advising appointment.

Drop-in advising hours are: Mondays & Thursdays 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. and Monday-Friday 12:30 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

5 2013-14 INTERNSHIP PROGRAM IN SUSTAINABILITY

The Academic Year Internship in Sustainability utilizes campus as a living-learning lab, enlisting students as researchers in investigating important questions facing our community, such as: How do the ways in which our campus operates and consumes resources affect the social, environmental and economic well-being of our community? How is our campus impact connected to more complicated global issues like climate change, resource scarcity and poverty? What opportunities do we have as individuals, institutions, communities, and governments to increase collective social, economic and economic health, and how do we best communicate these opportunities? How will we adapt and ensure all people have the ability to thrive in response to dynamic climate conditions and limitations on resources?

Office of Sustainability Internship Positions

The Office of Sustainability is hiring six new interns through the Academic Year Internship Program in Sustainability, three mentored by IUOS and three by CSAB. Eight interns will be continuing from the summer program.

6 INTERFAITH WINTER SHELTER

Several organizations in Bloomington sponsor a low barrier evening shelter for homeless individuals during the winter months. This year the shelter will operate from November through March. See http://interfaithwintershelter.org/about/. IU students are invited to serve as volunteers at the shelter. Shifts are scheduled throughout the night, about three hours each, from 7 p.m. to 7 a.m. Volunteers generally serve in groups of 4 or 5. Training is provided in a variety of ways. IU participants have found it meaningful and often serve with friends. If you are interested, you can contact Michael Deane, mideane@umail.iu.edu, for more information.
