1 CONSTITUTION DAY RADIO INTERVIEW – WHAT WOULD YOU ASK?
On Tuesday Sept. 17, Lisa-Marie Napoli hosts an episode of Interchange on WFHB community radio (91.3 & 98.1 FM) that commemorates Constitution Day. Her guests will be IUB faculty members Tim Lovelace from the Maurer School of Law and Eileen Braman of the IU Political Science department. You are invited to submit questions that might be used on the show. Email your ideas for questions to pace@indiana.edu BY FRIDAY 9/13. The show airs weekly, with a variety of hosts, from 6-7 p.m. on Tuesdays. Interchange is WFHB’s longest running public affairs show.

2 2014 PACE ISSUE FORUM PLANNING
Interested in joining the leadership committee for the Feb 2014 PACE-C400 Issues Forum?

Planning for the 5th Annual PACE Issues Forum begins in October. At approximately two meetings this fall, we will choose the topic and panelists and discuss logistics for the February event. There will also be 1-2 meetings at the beginning of the spring semester. If you, or anyone you know, are interested in joining the committee, please email PACE at pace@indiana.edu. We will be sending out information and a Doodle poll to those who express an interest to set a date soon.

There will also be opportunities for 12 people to be trained as moderators for the small group deliberations at the Forum. You may decide to be part of the leadership committee and/or participate as a moderator. We will discuss further at our first planning meeting or you can contact Lisa-Marie Napoli at inapoli@indiana.edu with questions.

3 PACE 2ND 8-WEEK COURSE STILL OPEN:
If you find that you would like to drop a class for the fall or need another three credits –

PACE-C 300, class #34131, Moving Beyond Gridlock: Making Democracy Work
TuTh 6:00 – 8:00 PM, Ballantine 016 [starting Oct. 22] L Napoli
Do you wonder about political gridlock? Do you have concerns about how the U.S. government functions? This course explores the concepts of debate, dialogue, conflict and deliberation and the impact on the U.S. democratic system. Through interactive exercises, case studies and class discussions, students will gain insight about the essential role of deliberative democracy. In this 8-week course, students will choose contemporary issues to analyze by exploring the issue, identifying areas of conflict and finding alternatives to polarized debate. Throughout the course, students will examine the role of citizen participation and its potential for strengthening democracy at local, state and federal levels.

7 COMMUNITY SERVICE LEADERS PROGRAM

There are currently openings in the Community Service Leaders Program for the 2013-2014 academic year. Community Service Leaders (CSLs) are a team of passionate and dedicated undergraduate students that represent a range of academic and professional interests. Each CSL serves with a particular Bloomington nonprofit organization for a minimum of five hours each week completing both traditional and capacity building volunteer projects for an entire academic year (excluding recognized University breaks). In addition, CSLs spend two hours each week reaching out to their fellow IU students and empowering them to create a service project that fits individuals’ personal interests or the mission of a student organization. There are supplemental trainings, one-on-one supervisory meetings, and more to deepen each leader’s experience. For more information, please review the attached application or contact Gabrielle Hurley at ghurley@indiana.edu. If interested, submit the application to ghurley@indiana.edu no later than Wednesday, September 11th at 5:00 PM.
