1 CONSTITUTION DAY RADIO INTERVIEW
Tuesday, Sept. 17, 6 p.m.; WFHB Community Radio, 91.3 & 98.1 FM
Lisa-Marie Napoli hosts an episode of Interchange that coincides with Constitution Day. Her guests will be IUB faculty members Tim Lovelace from the Maurer School of Law and Eileen Braman of the IU Political Science department. The show airs weekly, with a variety of hosts, from 6-7 p.m. on Tuesdays. Interchange is WFHB’s longest running public affairs show. http://pace.indiana.edu/constitution%20day%20WFHB.html
If you miss the show tonight, you can hear the recording through http://wfhb.org/.

2 READY TO APPLY FOR THE PACE CERTIFICATE?
It’s a straightforward, easy procedure and should take about 10 minutes if you are enrolled in or have taken the beginning credits. Follow the steps here to add the certificate to your degree:
http://pace.indiana.edu/program/apply.shtml
You can schedule an appointment with the Associate Director, Joelene Bergonzi, to consult about your interests and priorities and whether or how you can fit PACE into your curriculum. 812.856.1747 or stop by Ballantine 132.

3 2014 PACE ISSUE FORUM PLANNING
Interested in joining the leadership committee for the Feb 2014 PACE-C400 Issues Forum?

Planning for the 5th Annual PACE Issues Forum begins in October. At approximately two meetings this fall, we will choose the topic and panelists and discuss logistics for the February event. There will also be 1-2 meetings at the beginning of the spring semester. If you, or anyone you know, are interested in joining the committee, please email PACE at pace@indiana.edu. We will be sending out information and a Doodle poll to those who express an interest to set a date soon.

There will also be opportunities for 12 people to be trained as moderators for the small group deliberations at the Forum. You may decide to be part of the leadership committee and/or participate as a moderator. We will discuss further at our first planning meeting or you can contact Lisa-Marie Napoli at lnapoli@indiana.edu with questions.
PACE 2ND 8-WEEK COURSE STILL OPEN:
If you find that you would like to drop a class for the fall or need another three credits – consider joining this active learning class:

PACE-C 300, class #34131, Moving Beyond Gridlock: Making Democracy Work
TuTh 6:00 – 8:00 PM, Ballantine 016 [starting Oct. 22] L Napoli
Do you wonder about political gridlock? Do you have concerns about how the U.S. government functions? This course explores the concepts of debate, dialogue, conflict and deliberation and the impact on the U.S. democratic system. Through interactive exercises, case studies and class discussions, students will gain insight about the essential role of deliberative democracy. In this 8-week course, students will choose contemporary issues to analyze by exploring the issue, identifying areas of conflict and finding alternatives to polarized debate. Throughout the course, students will examine the role of citizen participation and its potential for strengthening democracy at local, state and federal levels.

NONPROFIT PROFESSIONAL ROUNDTABLES
Wednesday, October 9; 7:00-8:30 p.m.; State Room East, Indiana Memorial Union
Have you always wanted to work at a nonprofit, but worry about finding positions in this competitive sector? Networking in the field can give you a step above the competition. At this event, you will have the opportunity to speak one on one with several nonprofit professionals. Learn about organizations and make connections in the field to help your job and internship search. Unlike other events where employers lecture to large groups, this event will allow you to speak individually with nonprofit representatives from diverse organizations and gain valuable face time with potential future contacts. We prefer that students RSVP through your myIUcareers account, accessible at iucareers.com. Business casual attire (dress shirt, dress pants, or skirt) is appropriate for this event. Learn more here:

Volunteer, Community Engagement

SUMMER VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES IN NICARAGUA AND AFRICA

Information sessions: Thursday, September 19, IMU Maple Room; Meetings start at: 11:15, 12:20, 1:25, 2:30 & 3:35

Make a valuable change in someone’s life while earning academic credit by joining Growth International Volunteer Excursions (GIVE)! Become a part of our volunteer community and empower local villages abroad in either Nicaragua on both the Pacific and Caribbean coasts or Africa in both Zanzibar and Tanzania. GIVE is dedicated to creating opportunities for community development and service learning overseas through education, sustainable infrastructure projects, and environmental conservation. As a GIVE volunteer, you will build schools out of recyclable materials, implement fresh water projects, teach English, carryout marine and environmental conservation projects, and help protect critically endangered species. This year, you will be part of even more innovative, relevant, and unique projects that will literally change your life and the lives of the locals you are assisting. Not only will you have a hands-on experience, but you will have the opportunity to learn about sustainable development and cross-cultural relations through our UNIV 304 International Sustainable Development course offered in partnership with Central Washington University. www.givevolunteers.org. If you wish to consider this experience for your required PACE internship, please consult with Joelle Bergonzi in the PACE office, Ballantine 132, when you have more information.
