Set up an advising appointment by dropping by Ballantine 132 or calling 812-856-1747.

Events of Interest

1. THE NITTY GRITTY: THE ROLE OF GRIT & PERSEVERANCE IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF CIVIC ENGAGEMENT
   Friday September 25, 10:00 a.m., Woodburn Hall Room 218
   Professor D. Sunshine Hillygus of Duke University has published widely in the field of American politics on political behavior, campaigns and elections, survey methods, public opinion, and information technology and politics. She is co-author of The Persuadable Voter (Princeton, 2008) and The Hard Count: The Social and Political Challenges of the Census (Russell Sage, 2006).

2. NAVIGATING YOUR IU EXPERIENCE: EXPLORE MAJORS & MORE FAIR
   Tuesday, Sept 29, 11 a.m.-4 p.m.; Alumni Hall, IMU
   Be sure to visit the PACE table at the Explore Majors & More Fair!
   Don’t miss this unique opportunity to efficiently explore your options for not just majors, but also minors, certificate programs, and many other ways to enhance your degree with co-curricular experiences like overseas study and service learning. For a list of participating programs, please visit http://go.iu.edu/io0

3. LOCAL CANDIDATE FORUMS
   The League of Women Voters is sponsoring two local candidate forums that are relevant to the campus community:
   - Sept. 28 - Candidate Forum - Bloomington Mayor and City Council At Large. City Council Chambers, 7:00 p.m.
   - Sept. 29 - Candidate Forum - City Council District 1 and 3. City Council Chambers, 7:00 p.m.

4. ALTERNATIVE BREAK FAIR
   Wednesday, September 30, 11 a.m. – 2 p.m. IMU Frangipani Room
   Students interested in going on a service-based trip this academic year are welcome to attend the Alternative Break Fair. Explore local, national and international service experiences, as well as funding resources to help students minimize cost. For more information: 812-855-4311 or email anarcher@indiana.edu.

5. STILL A PEACEMAKER: THE US COMMUNITY RELATIONS SERVICE AT 50
   Thursday, October 1, 4 p.m.; Whittenberger Auditorium
   Panel Discussion: “Promoting a Peaceful and Just Community in Monroe County, Indiana”
   Thursday, October 1, 7:30 p.m.; Monroe County Public Library
   These events will feature Grande Lum, the director of the Community Relations Service (CRS), an organization within the Department of Justice. The Community Relations Service is known as the nation’s peacemaker. It has been on the ground in Ferguson, Baltimore and other locations of recent conflicts resulting from differences of race, color, national origin, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, religion and disability, working with government, organizations, civil rights groups and local community leaders to facilitate viable, mutual understandings and solutions to these challenges.

6. NEGOTIATION WORKSHOP AND SIMULATION
   Friday, October 2, 9:30-11:30 a.m.; SPEA 274
   The 2-hour workshop and exercise will discuss insights about negotiation drawn from Thirteen Days in September by Lawrence Wright, which chronicles the day-by-day developments in the Camp David peace talks brokered in 1978 by Jimmy Carter between Egypt and Israel. The book offers a number of valuable insights not only for negotiating in the Middle East and around the Arab-Israeli conflicts, but for broader negotiation. The workshop is a unique opportunity for students to hear from people with deep experience negotiating in the Middle East and to do a fun and thought-provoking role playing exercise that will challenge them to apply some of the themes discussed. The format for the workshop is a group discussion, followed by students breaking out into a role-playing negotiation exercise, and then a group debrief and wrap up/concluding discussion. Please RSVP to ehalstea@indiana.edu.

PANEL DISCUSSION: QUESTION AUTHORITY—CONGRESS, THE CIA, AND YOU

Friday, October 2, 4-5:30 p.m.; SPEA 167

A discussion examining the law, ethics, and efficacy of US policies in the Middle East and the war on terror. Topics will include how to respond to the threats posed by ISIS and other extremist groups; the Iran nuclear deal; and relations between intelligence agencies and Congress. The panelists will also share advice for students on preparing for and pursuing successful professional careers in public affairs. Panelists include: Nick Connon, who represents major corporations in international commercial litigation and arbitration in the U.S. and abroad, with a particular emphasis on the Middle East; Jeffrey Spears, a former Army major and Judge Advocate General who now works with U.S. contractors in Iraq and Afghanistan, and whose experience in those regions includes both prosecuting war criminals and negotiating with tribal and village leaders; John Rizzo, former Acting General Counsel of the CIA whose book Company Man: Thirty Years of Controversy & Crisis in the CIA gives a first-hand account of several decades of agency policy and operational decision-making; and 9/11 Commission Co-Chair and former U.S. Representative Lee Hamilton.

Leadership, Internships & Careers

ARTS & SCIENCES CAREER LINK

Arts & Sciences Career Services recently launched a new instance of the Symplicity Career Services Management Product (MyJobs) for undergraduate and graduate students in the College. When you visit http://ascs.indiana.edu, you will find a new ‘Career Link’ button in the top, right-hand corner of the screen. Students can use this link to access the system login screen. From here on out, this is the method College students should use to log-in and access the system, request career advising appointments, and view current full-time and internship openings. IUA@indiana.edu

Academic & Career Planning Resource Guide for students in the College of Arts & Sciences:

APPLY FOR A SENATE INTERNSHIP TODAY!

Each year, the Indiana State Senate offers Hoosier students a chance to participate in their state government. Spring semester internships are available to college sophomores, juniors, seniors, graduate students and recent college graduates who are Indiana residents or are enrolled at an in-state university. The 2016 Senate Internship will begin in January and end in mid-March. The Senate Republicans offer internships and the Senate Democrats hire legislative interns who work directly with one or two lawmakers, as well as interns specializing in the fields of communications, law, policy and public finance. The deadline to submit an application for the 2016 program is October 31.

http://indianasenatedemocrats.org/opportunities/internships/
http://indianahousedemocrats.org/intern
http://www.indianasenaterepublicans.com/intern-program/

HOPING TO WORK IN INTELLIGENCE? CONSIDERING GRADUATE SCHOOL?

The Study of Terrorism and Responses to Terrorism (START) at the University of Maryland is a flexible and fully online program provides students with advanced education on the causes, dynamics and impacts of international and domestic terrorism. The unique online format enables students to work full- or part-time while advancing their education. No pre-requisite knowledge is required, yet our coursework is appropriate for both new and experienced learners.

To learn more about the program and courses, visit http://www.start.umd.edu/education/graduate-certificate-online.

An online information session will be held on Wednesday, September 23, 6:30 p.m. EST. To join the discussion, RSVP to Jacqueline DeVore at education@start.umd.edu. Other internship opportunities at START: http://www.start.umd.edu/careers/internships

NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR HOOSIER LEADERSHIP PROGRAM’S FALL EVENTS

Please let PACE know if you are applying so that we can consider sponsoring those who have added the PACE certificate!

EMERGING LEADER RETREAT (Freshmen and Sophomores), Sunday, October 4, 10 a.m. – 5 p.m.

The Hoosier Emerging Leaders Retreat is a one day leadership development program conducted by the Student Life and Learning. This retreat is for first and second year students interested in developing leadership skills. This retreat will help you learn about yourself, build skills, and how to use your unique strengths to make an impact.

HOOSIER STUDENT LEADER RETREAT (Juniors and Seniors), Sunday, November 8, 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.

The Hoosier Leadership Retreat is a one day leadership development program conducted by the Student Life and Learning staff. This...
From the PACE office

If you are taking (or have taken) PACE-C 250 and another course that counts for the certificate, you can apply to add the certificate to your degree. See http://pace.indiana.edu/program/apply.shtml