Announcements from the PACE Office

Would you like to be nominated and sponsored by PACE to attend the Catalyst Retreat for leadership development on Sat, Oct. 26? The Political and Civic Engagement Program will choose two students who have added the PACE certificate to sponsor for this event. If you would like to be considered for PACE nomination and sponsorship, please reply to this message by Friday, Sept. 27. (ANY student may apply to attend without PACE’s nomination.)

1 CATALYST STUDENT LEADER RETREAT
October 26, 11 a.m.-6 p.m.; location TBA
Application due Friday, October 11 by 5:00 p.m.
The Catalyst Program is a one-day leadership development program conducted by the LeaderShape Institute. Catalyst is based on the LeaderShape philosophies of leading with integrity, inner work and connecting with others. The program gives students the opportunity to make connections across campus and deeper explore their own goals. Catalyst will challenge attendees to engage in meaningful conversations, to ask questions, and to go to the next level as you develop as a leader. There is no cost, and breakfast and lunch are provided. Contact leadiu@indiana.edu with questions. Apply at https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/377B695

2 2014 PACE ISSUE FORUM PLANNING
Are you interested in joining the leadership committee for the Feb, 2014, PACE-C400 Issues Forum?
Planning for the 5th Annual PACE Issues Forum begins in October. At approximately two meetings this fall, we will choose the topic and panelists and discuss logistics for the February event. There will also be 1-2 meetings at the beginning of the spring semester. If you, or anyone you know, are interested in joining the committee, please email PACE at pace@indiana.edu, or reply to this message, by Friday, Sept. 27. We will be sending out information and a Doodle poll to those who express an interest to set a date soon for the first meeting.
There will be opportunities for 12 people to be trained as moderators for the small group deliberations at the Forum. You may decide to be part of the leadership committee and/or participate as a moderator. We will discuss further at our first planning meeting or you can contact Lisa-Marie Napoli at lnapoli@indiana.edu with questions.

3 READY TO APPLY FOR THE PACE CERTIFICATE?
It’s a straightforward, easy procedure and should take about 10 minutes if you are enrolled in or have taken the beginning credits. Follow the steps here to add the certificate to your degree:
http://pace.indiana.edu/program/apply.shtml
You can schedule an appointment with the Associate Director, Joelene Bergonzi, to consult about your interests and priorities and whether or how you can fit PACE into your curriculum. 812.856.1747 or stop by Ballantine 132.

PACE 2ND 8-WEEK COURSE STILL OPEN:
If you find that you would like to drop a class for the fall or need another three credits – consider joining this active learning class for three credits, which begins on Tuesday, Oct. 22:
PACE-C 300, class #34131, Moving Beyond Gridlock: Making Democracy Work
TuTh 6:00 – 8:00 PM, Ballantine 016 [starting Oct. 22] L Napoli
Do you wonder about political gridlock? Do you have concerns about how the U.S. government functions? This course explores the concepts of debate, dialogue, conflict and deliberation and the impact on the U.S. democratic system. Through interactive exercises, case studies and class discussions, students will gain insight about the essential role of deliberative democracy. In this 8-week course, students will choose contemporary issues to analyze by exploring the issue, identifying areas of conflict and finding alternatives to polarized debate. Throughout the course, students will examine the role of citizen participation and its potential for strengthening democracy at local, state and federal levels.

NONPROFIT PROFESSIONAL ROUNDTABLES
Wednesday, October 9; 7:00-8:30 p.m.; State Room East, Indiana Memorial Union
Have you always wanted to work at a nonprofit, but worry about finding positions in this competitive sector? Networking in the field can give you a step above the competition. At this event, you will have the opportunity to speak one on one with several nonprofit professionals. Learn about organizations and make connections in the field to help your job and internship search. Unlike other events where employers lecture to large groups, this event will allow you to speak individually with nonprofit representatives from diverse organizations and gain valuable face time with potential future contacts. We prefer that students RSVP through your myIUcareers account, accessible at iucareers.com. Business casual attire (dress shirt, dress pants, or skirt) is appropriate for this event. Learn more here: http://www.indiana.edu/~career/services/events/index.php?event_type=4&event_id=1892

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF STATE STUDENT INTERNSHIP PROGRAM
Applications are being accepted for the U.S. Department of State 2014 Summer Student Internship Program (unpaid). U.S. citizenship is required. Click here (https://state.usajobs.gov/GetJob/ViewDetails/351699900) to go directly to USAJobs to start the Gateway to State online application. This program offers U.S. citizen undergraduate and graduate students the opportunity to participate in 10-week, unpaid internships that provide intensive educational and professional experience within the environment of America’s principle foreign affairs agency. The unpaid internships are available at many of the over 265 U.S. embassies, consulates and missions to international organizations around the world, as well as at the Department of State in Washington, D.C. and other locations throughout the U.S. Participants gain first-hand, hands-on experience, and learn the realities of working in – and with – Foreign and Civil Service professionals who are at the forefront of America’s diplomatic efforts. Please visit http://careers.state.gov/students/programs for more information about the Summer 2014 Student Internship Program (unpaid), and to start the online application process via USAJobs. Please note that the deadline to submit completed applications is November 1, 2013.
THE BILL EMERSON NATIONAL HUNGER FELLOWSHIP

Volunteer, Community Engagement

BECOME A CIRCLES INITIATIVE ALLY!
Circles is an intentional way for people to build relationships across class and race lines to end poverty in their communities. As a Circles Initiative Ally, you will provide friendship, acting as an extended family member to a person or family living in poverty. Each circle consists of one person or family working their way out of poverty, called a Circle Leader, and three Allies. Circles work together to accomplish specific goals set by the Leader to increase his or her resources. Allies, who learn to see poverty in a different light, provide knowledge and insight relating to a variety of life circumstances, social connections and networking. Allies meet monthly with their Circle and attend Thursday evening community dinners twice a month. Allies receive on-going training and support. A commitment of 18 months is requested. Minimum age is 18. Please contact Linda Patton, South Central Community Action Program, at (812) 339-3447 ext. 206 or lindap@insccap.org. www.insccap.org
