1. VISIT PACE AT THE 2013 STUDENT INVOLVEMENT FAIR
The Student Involvement Fair takes place today, Tuesday, Sept. 3, from 11-2:30 in Dunn Meadow. Many campus and community organizations will be represented. Stop by to check it out, and learn more about the PACE program!

2. PACE 2ND 8-WEEK COURSE STILL OPEN:
If you find that you would like to drop a class for the fall or need another three credits –

PACE-C 300, class #34131, Moving Beyond Gridlock: Making Democracy Work
TuTh 6:00 – 8:00 PM, Ballantine 016 [starting Oct. 22] L Napoli
Do you wonder about political gridlock? Do you have concerns about how the U.S. government functions? This course explores the concepts of debate, dialogue, conflict and deliberation and the impact on the U.S. democratic system. Through interactive exercises, case studies and class discussions, students will gain insight about the essential role of deliberative democracy. In this 8-week course, students will choose contemporary issues to analyze by exploring the issue, identifying areas of conflict and finding alternatives to polarized debate. Throughout the course, students will examine the role of citizen participation and its potential for strengthening democracy at local, state and federal levels.

Volunteer, Community Engagement

6 GIRLS INC. AFTER-SCHOOL PROGRAM
If you enjoy working with kids, being active or working on art projects, then Girls Inc., which works to inspire girls to be strong, smart and bold, may be your next volunteer home! Volunteers work with the girls from 3-6 p.m., assisting with homework, supervising play and snack time, and leading activities. Volunteers must be comfortable supervising groups of girls and must pass a criminal history background check. Minimum age is 18.
Please contact Daisy Chew at (812) 336-7313 or dchew@monroe.girls-inc.org, www.girlsinc-monroe.org
