PACE News
January 13, 2016
Woodburn Hall 221 • 812-856-1747
pace@indiana.edu • http://pace.indiana.edu

“like” us on Facebook!
facebook.com/PACE.indiana.edu

Set up an advising appointment: drop by Woodburn 221, or call 812-856-1747.

PACE Announcements

NEW PACE OFFICES NOW OPEN AT WOODBURN 221!!!
All PACE faculty and staff have relocated to Woodburn 221, including PACE’s new director, Sandra Shapshay. It’s a terrific space; please drop by!

MLK DAY—BUILDING CIVILITY: LISTENING TO UNDERSTAND & SPEAKING TO BE UNDERSTOOD
Join us on Monday, Martin Luther King, Jr., Day: https://www.facebook.com/events/1160418263975918/
Monday, Jan 18, 1:00-4:00 p.m.
Bloomington City Hall Council Chambers, Morton St.
This workshop is open to all community members who are interested in having more effective conversations with others who hold different perspectives. It will provide opportunities for active practice and skill building to have more productive conversations (in a variety of contexts) that might be otherwise challenging and stifling. The agenda for the afternoon includes:
• An active listening demonstration and practice;
• A step-by-step group exercise in speaking with those who hold polar opposite views; and
• A moderated discussion about a controversial, complex topic of local importance.
For further information, you may contact pace@indiana.edu or call Joelle at 812-856-7882. Free community potluck lunch prior to this workshop, at noon in the atrium of City Hall, co-hosted with the Bloomington Community Orchard. The facilitators of this event are Lisa-Marie Napoli and Joelene Bergonzi, both from the Indiana University Political and Civic Engagement Program, and Jordan Shifriss, former board member of Bloomington Community Justice and Media tion Center (CJAM).

PACE WEBSITE TESTERS NEEDED!
Can you volunteer for 20-60 minutes?
The PACE website redesign project team needs students who are willing to volunteer to do usability testing for the new design. Participants are given a set of tasks to complete and asked follow-up questions. Sessions will take between 20 to 60 minutes. Please reply to pace@indiana.edu if you are willing to be contacted by the IU team to schedule a session. Thank you!

PACE FACEBOOK PAGE
The PACE program has merged two Facebook accounts; if you were “friends” with PACE on Facebook, you’ll now need be sure to “like” this page to receive updates: https://www.facebook.com/PACE.indiana.edu

FILM SCREENING: WE BREAK THINGS
Thursday, January 21, 7:30 p.m.
Maurer School of Law Moot Court Room
This film pulls back the curtain on one of society’s increasingly powerful political forces, the hackers who build and break technology to defend civil liberties worldwide. https://vimeo.com/127440067
On Friday, January 22 at noon in the Faculty Conference Room - 3rd Floor, Law School, Rebecca Wexler of the Yale Visual Law Project will present a talk, “A Rule of Equivalents: Video as Big Data Collection for Purposes of Investigation and Trial.”

WINTER CAREER & INTERNSHIP FAIR
Thursday, January 28, 3:00-7:00 p.m.
Alumni Hall, Indiana Memorial Union
Be sure to research the complete list of attending employers ahead of time in your Career Link account in “Attend Events” on the bottom right of your homepage. Professional dress is recommended. This fair is open to all IUB students, including students with Federal Work Study Authorization.Bring your student ID for a speedy check-in. A Career Fair Prep session will be on Tuesday, Jan. 26, 6-8 p.m., at the Career Development Center, 625 N. Jordan Ave.

BECOME A CERTIFIED CIVIC REFLECTION TRAINER
Valparaiso University’s Center for Civic Reflection, in partnership with PACE and IU Student Life and Learning, is offering student leaders the opportunity to become certified civic reflection facilitators by attending a half-day training on Friday, Feb. 26, from 1-5 p.m. See http://civicreflection.org/. This training is FREE for students. It’s a great opportunity for those actively engaged in volunteering, service, or other civic matters. Email pace@indiana.edu for more information and to reserve your spot.

Leadership, Internships & Careers

HOOSIER LEADERSHAPE
Application deadline: February 22
LeaderShape is a week-long leadership institute that will challenge you to get out of your comfort zone. You won’t learn how to run better meetings; you’ll learn to change the world. LeaderShape will take place March 13-18, 2016. You must attend the full week. For more info write eadiu@indiana.edu. Please let PACE know if you are interested in this event so that we can consider sponsoring you! Apply at https://leadershape.org/Account/Login?ReturnUrl=%2fapplications%2fapply%2f3252
Information Sessions: Thursday, Jan. 14,
6-7 p.m., McNutt 208; Wednesday, Jan. 27, 5:30-6:30 p.m.; Union Street Center Rm 114; Thursday, Feb. 11, 6-7 p.m.; IMU Sassafras Room.

MULTINATIONAL COLLEGE STUDENT WORKSHOP 2016

Application deadline: January 25

The Kettering Foundation is a nonprofit, non-partisan, nongovernmental research foundation rooted in the American tradition of invention. Located in Dayton, Ohio, Kettering’s primary research question is, what does it take to make democracy work as it should? Kettering has examined the impediments to democracy in the United States and abroad for the past thirty years, and this July, the foundation will be convening a five-day workshop for undergraduate college students from around the world to investigate these challenges in their own national contexts. Requirements: Applicants must be currently enrolled in a college or university, and must have an expected graduation date of 2017 or later. The Kettering Foundation will cover the cost of transportation to and from Dayton, OH. To be considered, please send the following to: Etana Jacobi at ejacobi@kettering.org with “[Multinational Workshop] Last Name, First Name Application” in the subject line: resume; unofficial undergraduate transcript; contact information for 3 references; essay (maximum 500 words) on the following question:

Kettering studies democracy (as defined below) through the lens of citizens, communities, and institutions. Using one of these lenses, explain some of the impediments to a healthy democracy in your home country.

Democracy: At its most fundamental, democracy is a system of governance in which power comes from citizens who generate their power by working together to combat common problems—beginning in their communities—and by working to shape their common future, both through what they do with other citizens and through their institutions.

---

BASIC MEDIATION AND RESTORATIVE JUSTICE TRAINING

February 6, 7, 20, 21 and 27

Maurer School of Law; register by February 3

This specific training is usually offered twice a year in September and February. The training is led by senior mediators and restorative justice practitioners. MAXIMUM # of PARTICIPANTS: 20 people with seating filled on a first-come, first-served basis.

Tuition is: $300; $250 if received by January 29, 2016 (Limited number of scholarships available, please call 812-336-8677) If interested, please download application Basic Mediation & RJ Training Application form and e-mail it to training@cjamcenter.org. Then pay online with a credit card or mail a check in with your form to: CJAM 205 South Walnut St. Ste. 16 Bloomington, IN 47404 Those who volunteer with CJAM after the training work as “apprentices,” working alongside mediators and restorative justice practitioners who have had significant experience as lead facilitators in their programs.

---

PACE-C 400 Issue Forum

Spring 2016 class # 10668, 1 credit

There’s still room to participate in the 2016 PACE-C 400 Issue Forum. Space is filling fast; be sure to enroll soon!

A one-day experience in deliberative democracy featuring expert panelists and small group discussions. Lunch & snacks provided.

The annual PACE Issue Forum is open to any IUB undergraduate.

One day event, Saturday, February 27

11:30 a.m. - 5:00 p.m., EDUC Auditorium 1120

812-856-1747 • pace@indiana.edu • http://pace.indiana.edu