FASE ADVISORY BOARD CAREER DINNER SYMPOSIUM
Thursday, February 25, 6:00 - 8:00 p.m.
Indiana Memorial Union, Tudor Room
RSVP by Wednesday, February 3

The idea behind the Symposium is to connect you with professionals who reflect your academic or career interests and allow you the opportunity to network. You will have the opportunity to ask career related questions of professionals to gain valuable insights, suggestions, or recommendations as to how you may duplicate such success. The professionals are purely sharing information based upon their previous experience(s), addressing any questions that you may have concerning preparation, trends, and/or opportunities for job shadowing, mentoring, etc. To RSVP: https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/B6ZM7QJ

GOWNSBURG: HOW AMERICAN COLLEGE CAMPUS BECAME DYSFUNCTIONAL TOWNS
Tuesday, February 9, 4:00-5:30 p.m.
The Poynter Center, 618 E. Third St.
RSVP to eayoung@indiana.edu

Bringing a wealth of experience in Bloomington City Government to the topic, Geography scholar Steve Volan will share his research into how college campuses function, for better and for worse, as municipalities. Indiana University has a complex relationship with the City of Bloomington, exerting its own control over vast amounts of real estate, housing, and jobs, running its own parking and police operations, and having extensive impact on demographics, economics, and lifestyles. How should campuses see their role as lived spaces? How can city government cope with campus?
