BECOME A CERTIFIED CIVIC REFLECTION TRAINER

Valparaiso University’s Center for Civic Reflection, in partnership with PACE and IU Student Life and Learning, is offering student leaders the opportunity to become certified civic reflection facilitators by attending a half-day training on Friday, Feb. 26, 1-5 p.m. See http://civicreflection.org/. This training is FREE for students and spots will be filled on a first-come, first-served basis. This is a great opportunity for those that are actively engaged in volunteering, service, or other civic matters (or who plan to do so in the future) to gain the essential leadership skill of facilitating group discussions with their members.

PACE Internships

Below are some internship opportunities that will count toward the PACE certificate. Please contact the PACE Internship Director, Joelle Bergonzi (812.856.7882), as you prepare:

- To set up an internship
- For authorization to add PACE internship credit
- To apply for an internship scholarship.

LOCAL POLITICAL ADVOCACY INTERNSHIP (FALL 2016)

Reverse Citizens United (a local political advocacy group) is offering an internship in Bloomington for a bright and energetic student to work with data, contact IU groups for presentations, and other tasks. The group wants to reverse the Supreme Court ruling (Citizens United) that permits unlimited contributions to groups that advertise in campaigns, in the belief that corporate spending on elections works against the common good. The group also plans a march around the Court House on April 16 as part of the nationwide Democracy Awakening day. Contact: Susan Davis, 812-331-2819 (home phone) between 8:30 a.m. and 9 p.m. any day, or susanbergdavis@hotmail.com.

VOTER SERVICES COMMITTEE INTERNSHIP WITH THE LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

The Voter Services committee is trying to reach out to area high school students who are turning 18 to help them understand the importance of voting and get them information about how to register, seeking permission from local superintendents, principals, and teachers to gain access to classes of students. This is totally nonpartisan; interns would have to leave their own politics at the door. If interested, learn more by contacting Kathy Byers, kvbyers@indiana.edu, 812.361.4356.

SUMMER INTERNSHIPS WITH MIDDLE WAY HOUSE INC.

Crisis Intervention Internships—2 positions are available (includes some training sessions in early April). Further descriptions available from pace@indiana.edu or from CISC@middlewayhouse.org. Interviews will be conducted as soon as possible to fill these positions. Interested persons should contact the Coordinators to submit resumes, cisc@middlewayhouse.org.

MONROE COUNTY DEMOCRATIC PARTY COMMUNICATIONS INTERN

The Monroe County Democratic Party seeks an intern with a passion for politics and an interest in media relations. Candidates should be college students or recent graduates with a dedication to public service. The intern will have the opportunity to interact with lawmakers and develop your skills of advocacy, public education, and political engagement. The position will last through the remainder of the spring semester with the possibility of extending into the summer/fall semester. The intern will be responsible for: creating a candidate guide for Democratic primary candidates; assisting the organization in managing web and social media presence; maintaining volunteer and donor list; other projects as necessary. Qualifications: ability to dedicate 10 hours per week; previous political experience preferred but not required; capacity to work flexibly; strong interpersonal and written communication skills. This position is unpaid but the campaign will work with all interns to fulfill academic requirements. Interested candidates are encouraged to send their resume to Matthew Metz (matthewmetz01@gmail.com) with the subject “Communications Internship.”

LEADERSHIP & THE AMERICAN PRESIDENCY

Fall 2016; Washington, D.C.

This program will allow you to examine some of the greatest leadership challenges in the history of our country from the viewpoint of the President of the United States, and will connect you with some of the most thoughtful, well-regarded, and recognizable leaders of today. Public servants, journalists, entrepreneurs, and other leaders from across sectors will share their stories of leadership with each cohort. Leadership and the American Presidency challenges you through a series of interactive simulations, case studies, and real-world scenarios that will test and improve your ability as a leader. The program includes housing, internship placement and support, as well as a rigorous and accredited full time academic course load; internships with government agencies, Congressional offices, public policy think tanks, international affairs groups, nonprofit organizations, and law firms throughout the Washington area; site briefings at key Washington institutions, guest lectures featuring influential and thoughtful leaders, networking events; and much more! Students are encouraged to apply by the early deadline of March 1, 2016 to receive priority admissions and scholarship consideration, as well as a 5% discount on their tuition balance. Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis until the final deadline of June 1, 2016. Generous scholarships are available to students based on financial need and merit. To apply, visit www.DCinternships.org/STAMP. Questions may be directed to Matt Phister at 202-509-8948 or mphister@fas.org.
