POLITICAL AND CIVIC ENGAGEMENT (PACE)
COLLEGE OF ARTS + SCIENCES

PACE News

February 24, 2016

“Ilike” us on Facebook!
facebook.com/PACE.indiana.edu

Set up an advising appointment: drop by Woodburn 221, or call 812-856-1747.

PACE Announcements

MOCK PRIMARY, REAL PIZZA & DISCUSSION
Thursday, March 3, 7:00 - 8:30 p.m.; Hutton Honors College, Great Room (811 E. 7th)
Limited seating, SIGN-UP REQUIRED—see details at http://www.indiana.edu/~iubhonor/ hdextra/spring16/voting.php

The Hutton Honors College is collaborating with the PACE program to give you an opportunity to cast your vote and have your say about what issues matter most to you and why. As the votes come in from primaries around the country, are you wishing you could have your say? Right now? Before it’s a done deal? Come vote in the HHC/PACE mock presidential primary! Join professors Marjorie Hershey of the Department of Political Science and Carl Weinberg of the Department of History and PACE for a discussion of the political landscape. If you haven’t yet registered to vote and have your say about what issues matter most to you and why. As the votes come in from primaries around the country, are you wishing you could have your say? Right now? Before it’s a done deal? Come vote in the HHC/PACE mock presidential primary! Join professors Marjorie Hershey of the Department of Political Science and Carl Weinberg of the Department of History and PACE for a discussion of the political landscape. If you haven’t yet registered to vote and have your say about what issues matter most to you and why. As the votes come in from primaries around the country, are you wishing you could have your say? Right now? Before it’s a done deal? Come vote in the HHC/PACE mock presidential primary! Join professors Marjorie Hershey of the Department of Political Science and Carl Weinberg of the Department of History and PACE for a discussion of the political landscape.

PACE Internships

PRIORITY DATE FOR PACE INTERNSHIP SCHOLARSHIPS IS APPROACHING—APRIL 1! SET UP YOUR SUMMER OR FALL INTERNSHIP NOW.
Contact the PACE Internship Director, Joelene Bergonzi, as you prepare to set up an internship and for authorization to add PACE internship credit and apply for an internship scholarship. [All PACE students who have added the certificate are eligible for internship scholarships. Still need to apply to add PACE? Take ten minutes to fill out the online form: http://pace.indiana.edu/program/onlineApp.shtml]

LOCAL POLITICAL ADVOCACY INTERNSHIP
Reverse Citizens United (a local political advocacy group) is offering an internship in Bloomington for a bright and energetic student to work with data, contact IU groups for presentations, and other tasks. The group wants to reverse the Supreme Court ruling (Citizens United) that permits unlimited contributions to groups that advertise in campaigns, in the belief that corporate spending on elections works against the common good. The group also plans a march around the Court House on April 16 as part of the nationwide Democracy Awakening day. Contact: Susan Davis, 812-331-2819 or susanbergdavis@hotmail.com

VOTER SERVICES COMMITTEE INTERNSHIP
WITH LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS
The Voter Services committee is trying to reach out to area high school students who are turning 18 to help them understand the importance of voting and get them information about how to register, seeking permission from local superintendents, principals, and teachers to gain access to classes of students. This is totally nonpartisan; interns will have to leave their own politics at the door. If interested, learn more by contacting Kathy Byers, kvbyers@indiana.edu, 812.361.4356.

MONROE COUNTY DEMOCRATIC PARTY COMMUNICATIONS INTERN
The Monroe County Democratic Party seeks an intern with a passion for politics and an interest in media relations. Candidates should be college students or recent graduates with a dedication to public service. The internship will be an excellent opportunity to interact with lawmakers and develop your skills of advocacy, public education, and political engagement. The position will last through the remainder of the spring semester with the possibility of extending into the summer/fall semester. The intern will be responsible for: creating a candidate guide for Democratic primary candidates; assisting the organization in managing web and social media presence; maintaining volunteer and donor list; other projects as necessary. Qualifications: ability to dedicate 10 hours per week; previous political experience preferred but not required; capacity to work flexibly; strong interpersonal and written communication skills. This position is unpaid but the campaign will work with all interns to fulfill academic requirements. Interested candidates are encouraged to send their resume to Matthew Metz (matthewmetz01@gmail.com) with the subject “Communications Internship”

SUMMER INTERNSHIPS: MIDDLE WAY HOUSE
Crisis Intervention Internships—2 positions are available (includes some training sessions in early April). Further details available from pace@indiana.edu or from CISC@middlewayhouse.org. Interviews will be conducted as soon as possible to fill these positions. Interested persons should contact the Coordinators with the subject “Communications Internship”

2016 GOVERNOR’S PUBLIC SERVICE INTERNSHIP PROGRAM
Indiana State Government is now accepting resumes for the 2016 Governor’s Public Service Summer Internship program. This program provides interns the opportunity to work with state agency officials, as well as participate in a Speaker Series which features various elected officials, state agency directors and other government representatives. The 2016 Governor’s Summer Internship program recipients are paid a rate of $11.30 per hour. See the list of agencies that are seeking interns for summer 2016. http://www.in.gov/spd/careers/internships.htm
Leadership & Careers

College Luminaries
Do you want to gain leadership and professional experience that will help you transition into life after earning your degree? The College Luminaries Program presents College of Arts and Sciences students with unique opportunities to develop leadership skills and gain professional experience while exploring the different pathways an arts and sciences degree can prepare you for through alumni connections. http://college.indiana.edu/alumni/luminaries/

Leadership Development Workshop
Thursday, February 25, 12-1 p.m.; GIBS 1060
Liz Oates, an IU Alum and Director of Corporate Strategy at Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd. will be offering a workshop that may be of interest to your students. She will be leading a discussion on the development of leadership skills based upon her experiences in the business and tourism industry. RSVP at https://iu.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_8G16WqRzUznGZhj. For questions, please contact Laura Fonseca, lfonseca@indiana.edu.

WEBINAR: CAREERS IN GLOBAL HEALTH
Thursday, February 25, 4-5 p.m. Eastern Time
This free webinar about “How to Start a Career in Global Health” will include five panelists who will focus on the best ways to connect with global health opportunities, skill sets that one should develop, how to conduct oneself in a job interview, strategies for cover letters, perspectives on quality and responsible engagement in global health, etc. The webinar will also highlight key cultural competency skills, as well as focus on humility in international and domestic settings. You can register at https://slate.uniteforsight.org/register/022515

2016 Health Programs Fair
Monday, February 29, 11:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.
IMU – Alumni Hall and Frangipani Room
Come find out about career choices, educational opportunities, and campus resources related to the healthcare professions. Meet with representatives from medical schools and health professions programs from across the country. Find out about volunteer opportunities and student organizations related to healthcare. For information visit http://www.healthc.indiana.edu/medicine/med-hpf.shtml.

Big 10 Career Expo
Thursday, March 10, 9 a.m.–2 p.m.
Union Station, Indianapolis, Indiana
Open to both students and alumni from the 14 Big Ten schools seeking internships, permanent employment or recent college graduates looking to make a job change. Of participating employers, 83 percent at the last Expo indicated they would follow-up with and hire people they met. Register online to attend and be entered in drawing for a new iPad. Register at http://www.bigtencareerexpo.com/.

Summer Institute on Philanthropy & Voluntary Service, Washington, D.C.
This is an academic internship program for undergraduates interested in a summer experience making a community impact. This program equips students with the practical and ethical tools needed for students to strengthen their leadership and professional skills. The inaugural Outstanding Student Leader Scholarship awards will provide full scholarships to 4 students to attend the program this summer; the deadline to apply for this scholarship is February 10. More information on the selection criteria and the application process may be found at www.DCinternships.org/StudentLeader. Final deadline is March 17. More information on the program may also be found online at www.DCinternships.org/IPVS.

Leadership & the American Presidency
Fall 2016; Washington, D.C.
This program will allow you to examine some of the greatest leadership challenges in the history of our country from the viewpoint of the President of the United States, and will connect you with some of the most thoughtful, well-regarded, and recognizable leaders of today. Leadership and the American Presidency challenges you through a series of interactive simulations, case studies, and real-world scenarios that will test and improve your ability as a leader. The program includes housing, internship placement and support, as well as an accredited full time academic course load; internships with government agencies, and nonprofit organizations throughout the Washington area; site briefings at key Washington institutions; and much more! Students are encouraged to apply by the early deadline of March 1, 2016 to receive priority admissions and scholarship consideration, as well as a 5% discount on their tuition balance. Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis until the final deadline of June 1, 2016. Generous scholarships are available to students based on financial need and merit. Apply at www.DCinternships.org/LTPAFall. Direct questions to Matt Phister at 202-509-8948 or mphister@fas.org.

Arts + Sciences Career Services
Students can request career advising appointments via Career Link, https://iuas-csm.simplicity.com/, at www.ascs.indiana.edu Or contact Chris Klein at cjklein@indiana.edu or 812-855-8208.

Events of Interest

Government Information 101
Friday, February 26, 10:00 - 11:00 a.m.
Hazelbaker Hall E159
Learn about the federal, state, and international materials available at Wells Library, along with the growing availability of government information online. Discuss not only what documents and resources are available, but also their relevance to a widespread range of departments within the academic community. Come and explore how government resources can expand your research!

Sustainability in an Unequal World
February 29, 7:30 - 9:00 p.m.
Whittenburger Auditorium, IMU
Climate injustice and the slow response to the water crisis in Flint, MI illustrate the need for an inclusive dialogue about sustainable futures. Sustainability in an Unequal World, brings together the perspectives of two renowned speakers on environmental justice issues—Dr. Julian Agymen from Tufts University and Dr. Drew Lanham from Clemson University. As a Black American conducting wildlife ecology and conservation work in the American South, Dr. Lanham “colors the conservation conversation,” considering how ethnicity impacts how we see nature and steward it. Dr. Agymen coined the term “just sustainabilities” and connects themes of resource distribution, cultural competency, spatial justice, and sharing cities, to envision sustainable urban environments.

Hot Topics Discussion: Black Lives Matter, Policing
Wednesday, March 2, 6 p.m.–8:30 p.m.
Moot Court Room, Maurer School of Law
Kevin Brown, the Richard S. Melvin Professor of Law at the Maurer School of Law, and Sandra Shapshay, director of the Political and Civic Engagement Program in the College and associate professor of philosophy, will lead a discussion on Black Lives Matter and policing. An initial panel discussion will be followed by several smaller break-out sessions.

Toxic Places: Water, Landscape, Space, & Place in Flint, Bloomington & Beyond
Thursday, March 3, 11:00 a.m. – 12 p.m.
Indiana Memorial Union State Room East
A panel discussion featuring: Todd Royer, Associate Professor of Public and Environmental Affairs, Aquatic Ecologist; Joe Varga, Professor of Labor Studies, Urban Historian; Jeff White, Professor of Public and Environmental Affairs, Director of the Integrated Program in the Environment at IU Bloomington, past President of Bloomington’s Utilities Service Board. What are the environmental, institutional, and political factors that create toxic places? What roles do scientists, engineers, policy makers have in public health and safety? What shapes the spaces in which scientists, engineers, and policy makers try to perform those roles? A preface to the 10th Annual Landscape, Space, and Place Conference, www.iulandscapeconference.wordpress.com

Debs Foundation & The Legacy of Indiana’s Radical Labor Legend
Monday, March 7, 12:15 p.m.
Oak Room, Indiana Memorial Union
Labor Studies Spring 2016 Brown Bag Lunch Series; with Dr. Lisa Phillips, Debs Foundation & Associate Professor, History, Indiana State University, and Dr. Alex Lichtenstein, IUB History. Join a discussion of the work of the Eugene V. Debs Foundation, and of Debs’ enduring legacy for the labor movement.