HOT TOPICS DISCUSSION: BLACK LIVES MATTER, POLICING
Wednesday, March 2, 6 p.m.–8:30 p.m.
Moot Court Room, Maurer School of Law
Kevin Brown, the Richard S. Melvin Professor of Law at the Maurer School of Law, and Sandra Shapshay, director of the Political and Civic Engagement Program in the College and associate professor of philosophy, will lead a discussion on Black Lives Matter and policing. An initial panel discussion will be followed by several smaller break-out sessions.

MOCK PRIMARY, REAL PIZZA & DISCUSSION
Thursday, March 3, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.
Hutton Honors College Great Room
Limited seating, SIGN-UP REQUIRED—see details at http://www.indiana.edu/~iubhonorml/ds extra/spring16/voting.php

The Hutton Honors College is collaborating with the PACE (Political and Civic Engagement) program to give you an opportunity to cast your vote and have your say about what issues matter most to you and why. As the votes come in from primaries around the country, are you wishing you could have your say? Right now? Before it’s a done deal? Come vote in the HHC/PACE mock presidential primary! Join professors Marjorie Hershey of the Department of Political Science and Carl Weinberg of the Department of History and PACE for a discussion of for the current presidential primaries and what they are revealing about the state of the country and the mood of the public. Why are voters so angry? Is the process bringing out the worst in candidates rather than their best? Why are the parties so fragmented? What role is money playing in the processes? What does it mean to be a Republican or a Democrat in current times? Hershey and Weinberg will provide analysis and lead a discussion on the current political landscape. If you haven’t yet registered to vote in a primary election, we will have information on hand to help you do so at the conclusion of the program. If you would like to register to vote in a state other than Indiana, please provide the state name at the time you sign up for the program. This program is co-sponsored by the HHC and PACE. To sign up for this program, email Becca Creath at bcreath@indiana.edu with your name, IU email, year in school, and field(s) of study and indicate you wish to sign up for the “Voting Program.” Space is limited, you will know by email if space is available; it essential that those who sign up be able to attend the entire event.

PACE Internships

PRIORITY DATE FOR PACE INTERNSHIP SCHOLARSHIPS IS APPROACHING—APR. 1!
SET UP YOUR SUMMER OR FALL INTERNSHIP NOW
Contact the PACE Internship Director, Joeline Bergonzini, as you prepare to set up an internship and for authorization to add PACE internship credit and apply for an internship scholarship. [All PACE students who have added the certificate are eligible for internship scholarship. Still need to apply to add PACE? Take ten minutes to fill out the online form: http://pace.indiana.edu/program/onlineApp.shtml]

LOCAL POLITICAL ADVOCACY INTERNSHIP (FALL 2016)
Reverse Citizens United (a local political advocacy group) is offering an internship in Bloomington for a bright and energetic student to work with data, contact IU groups for presentations, and other tasks. The group wants to reverse the Supreme Court ruling (Citizens United) that permits unlimited contributions to groups that advertise in campaigns, in the belief that corporate spending on elections works against the common good. The group also plans a march around the Court House on April 16 as part of the nationwide Democracy Awakening day. Contact: Susan Davis, 812-331-2819 or susanbergdavis@hotmail.com

VOTER SERVICES COMMITTEE INTERNSHIP

With League of Women Voters

The Voter Services committee is trying to reach out to area high school students who are turning 18 to help them understand the importance of voting and get them information about how to register, seeking permission from local superintendents, principals, and teachers to gain access to classes of students. This is totally nonpartisan; interns will have to leave their own politics at the door. If interested, learn more by contacting Kathy Byers, kvbyers@indiana.edu, 812.361.4356.

2016 Governor’s Public Service Internship Program

Indiana State Government is now accepting resumes for the 2016 Governor’s Public Service Summer Internship program. This program provides interns the opportunity to work with state agency officials, as well as participate in a Speaker Series which features various elected officials, state agency directors and other government representatives. The 2016 Governor’s Summer Internship program recipients are paid a rate of $11.30 per hour. See the list of agencies that are seeking interns for summer 2016. http://www.in.gov/spd/careers/internships.htm
