INDIANA UNIVERSITY
FULFILLING the PROMISE
You’ve chosen to vote in Indiana!

Before you get started, have these things out:

✔️ Indiana Driver’s License or State ID (Click here if you don’t have one)
✔️ Address where you would like to be registered to vote and county (lookup my county)
✔️ Mailing address (where you would like your vote-by-mail ballot to be sent) >>>how to choose<<<

If you have any questions about this process, please see the FAQ or get connected to someone at our office through our contact page.

This is a resource of Ask Every Student, a project of the ALL IN Campus Democracy Challenge, the Campus Vote Project, NASPA, and the Students Learn Students Vote Coalition. Learn more about Ask Every Student at studentvoting.org.
First make sure you’re eligible to vote!

Who is eligible to vote?

You can vote in U.S. elections if you:

- Are a U.S. citizen
- Meet your state’s residency requirements
  - You can be experiencing homeless and still meet these requirements.
  - College students, like all individuals, are entitled to register and vote in the community that they regard as their principal residence.
- Are 18 years old on or before Election Day
  - In almost every state, you can register to vote before you turn 18 if you will be 18 by Election Day. See a table of voter registration age requirements by state.
- Are registered to vote by your state’s voter registration deadline
  - North Dakota does not require voter registration.

Who isn’t eligible to vote?

- Non-citizens, including permanent legal residents
- Some people with felony convictions. Rules vary by state.
- Some people who are mentally incapacitated. Rules vary by state.
- For president in the general election: U.S. citizens residing in U.S. territories

Check with your state or local election office for any questions about who can and cannot vote.
Where should I vote this year?
IF YOU ARE A COLLEGE STUDENT, WHERE SHOULD YOU VOTE THIS YEAR?

Due to the changes from COVID-19, there are a number of different scenarios for where college students should register to vote this year. This guidance follows general principles of residency for voting purposes, but you should check with your local election officials for the specific voter registration rules where you live.

Some states have fail-safe procedures that allow a voter to vote at a prior registration address if they have not yet established residency at a new address or move close to Election Day, for example. These procedures are different in every state and can be difficult to navigate, so check with your local election officials for the specific voter registration rules where you live.

States may have several definitions of residency for different purposes. For example, most states have a specific definition and requirements for residency for in-state tuition purposes that is different from the definition and requirements of residency for voting purposes.

If you are concerned that you have gotten inaccurate information about registering to vote, even from an election official, contact us at info@campusvoteproject.org. You can see more information about registering and voting in all 50 states and D.C. in our student voting guides at: www.campusvoteproject.org/state-student-voting-guides.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS...

What do I do if I’m currently staying somewhere that isn’t campus and isn’t my home?

You can choose to register or remain registered at your last permanent address if you consider that to be your home. Residency laws do differ from state to state, though, so check out our student voting guides at www.campusvoteproject.org/state-student-voting-guides for more information.

What if I know that I will stay registered at my campus address for years to come even though I won’t be there this semester? What if my campus is my permanent address?

You can still register at your campus address, if you intend to return after your temporary absence due to COVID 19. Learn more at howto.vote.

What happens if I register on campus and then have to leave campus partially through the semester due to COVID-19?

You may be able to reregister at the address that you’ve been displaced to. As long as it’s before the deadline. Check the registration deadlines at howto.vote.

If you choose to stay registered at your campus address, make sure that you have a mail-in ballot delivered to an address that you’re confident you can access mail from in any scenario.

Vote by mail laws vary from state to state. Learn more about voting by mail at howto.vote and monitor changes from COVID-19 at tvote.org/COVID19.

Registering to vote by paper form

Register by mail (only if you can’t register online) by completing a Voter Registration Application and printing and mailing it to your local elections authority together in the same envelope with your vote-by-mail ballot request in the next section.

Common errors to watch out for:

➔ Signatures, beware! The signature on your registration and vote-by-mail ballot request (and on your voted ballot) will be compared to the signature on your State ID/Driver’s License.
  ♦ Make them match. Signing with a mouse may cause a problem, so it may be better to sign on paper & mail.

➔ Make sure your name is written the same as it is in on your ID, including hyphens and special characters.

➔ Make sure you write the correct dates. Don’t mix up today’s date with your birthday!

➔ List your residential address as where you want your vote to count.

➔ List your mailing address for where you want your mail delivered.

If you have any questions about voter registration, you can look through the FAQ.
If you don’t have access to a printer, you can use to iu.turbovote.org, to register to vote. They will send you a PDF of your form with a pre-stamped envelope. All you need to do is sign and send.
Voting in person:

It’s very possible that voting in person may be more difficult this year. While you do have the option to vote in person, make sure that if you do, you have a plan to do so safely, following public health guidelines.

Voting early. When you vote early, you ensure that school, work, long lines, or a bad commute on Election Day won’t stop your ballot from being counted!

You can still request a ballot even if you plan to vote in person. Even if you do prefer to vote in person, you can still request a mail-in-ballot. If you take your mail-in-ballot with you to the polling site, they will void it and let you vote in person. Also, if your ballot doesn’t arrive in the mail, you can still vote in person.
Where should I send my mail-in ballot?

Given the uncertainty of where you may be living due to COVID, instead of having your vote-by-mail ballot sent to your campus address you may want to have it sent to a friend or relative's home—really anywhere you KNOW you will have access to receiving mail. They can get it to you wherever you are. However, ballots can't be "forwarded"; they have to be re-mailed in an outer envelope with new stamps.
Requesting your vote by mail ballot

Request online
If you are already registered to vote and have a IN State ID/Driver’s License, you can request your mail-in ballot here: Indiana Voters

Request by mail (only if you don’t have an IN State ID/Driver’s License)
1. Print neatly on the Application for Absentee Ballot in black or blue pen (including your signature, matching your registration signature).
   → Go to indy.gov and scroll down to the “Absentee by Mail Application”
2. Mail the completed application (along with your voter registration application, if necessary) to the address of your election authority

If you have any questions about voter registration, you can look through the FAQ.
What happens next?
If you registered to vote today, make sure to check your registration again in 2 weeks through the same link from before. If it doesn’t show up, contact your local election authority.
If you want to vote in a state other than Indiana, you can register to vote and request your online ballot through https://iu.turbovote.org/

If you have any questions about voter registration, you can look through the FAQ.
If you are voting by mail...

✓ You can track the status of your mail ballot by logging in to Indiana Voters
✓ After receiving your ballot, follow the instructions carefully (errors can lead to ballot rejection!)
  ○ Sign on all lines that require a signature and match the signature that appears on your State ID/Driver’s License, if applicable; some states also require mail-in ballot envelopes to be signed, and others require witness signatures
  ○ Properly seal your ballot according to the instructions
  ○ Don’t mark anywhere outside of the signature or voting sections
✓ If requested, include a copy of your ID along with your mail ballot.
  ○ If you do not have a IN ID/Driver’s License, see the list of acceptable alternative ID documents here.
✓ Make sure your printed name and signature match your driver’s license.
✓ Return your ballot via mail (or deliver in-person).

If you have any questions about vote by mail, you can look through the FAQ.
If you are voting in person...

✓ Check your voting location. You should get a voter info card in the mail. This will tell you your voting location. It’s not required to take with you to the polls, but always good to have on you, just in case. You can also check your polling place here.

✓ Make sure to bring photo ID with you to the polls. You can check VoteRiders to learn more about acceptable forms of photo ID in Indiana.

✓ Vote safely. Plan to vote early if possible to avoid crowds and long lines. Make sure to follow COVID-19 hygienic procedures.

“I’ve moved or changed my name since registering to vote”

If your address is incorrect or you have changed your name you must update/re-register to vote. If you are updating a previous registration due to a name change, you must also provide your previous legal name.

“The address on my State ID is incorrect/out of date”

The name or address on your ID doesn’t have to be current, however, you must provide an up-to-date home and mailing address. If you are registering to vote for the first time and your ID does not match your current home address, you will need to submit a valid proof of residence document along with a copy of your photo ID. More information can be found on Indiana voting document.

“I don't have a valid State ID/Driver’s License”

If you do not have an IN ID or Driver’s License, you can register or submit a vote by mail application using your SSN.

“I need to print/mail a paper form but do not have access to a printer”

Not a problem! Please email us at pace@indiana.edu with all the documents and/or proof of residence and identification requirements you need printed and we’ll take care of the rest.

“If I’m already registered at one address, can I register at another address without ‘unregistering’ from the first?”

Yes. You must only vote at one; don't vote or request a vote-by-mail ballot at the other. Eventually your name will be removed from the registration rolls at the other. People move frequently, so there are lots of inactive names on the rolls. You are in good company. When you update your registration, there will be a line that asks you where you were registered before. Be sure to complete that so that your name is no longer associated with your previous address on the voter files.

“Why does it ask for my choice of political party?”

- November 3, 2020 is a general election, not a primary, so you don't need to specify a party for this election. You may still want to, though, for the next primary election.
- In primary elections, your ballots will have options from the candidates from the party you selected. Some states have “closed primaries” and so you choose your party in advance, when you register. Other states have "open primaries" meaning you can choose your party when you go to vote, or when you request your vote-by-mail ballot, and so you don't need to choose when you send in your voter registration form.
- Here's a map and list of which states have open primaries.
